THE PRINCETON SEMINARY CATALOGUE

(USPS 372-490)

VOLUME IV, NUMBER 1 (NEW SERIES)

JULY 1980

The catalogue is the basic issue of THE PRINCETON SEMINARY CATALOGUE published each year by Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey. Supplements are published in the Fall, Winter, and Spring in the form of specific course schedules.

Second class postage paid at Princeton, New Jersey, 08540.

The annual catalogue is an account of the academic year 1979-1980 and an announcement of the proposed program for the years 1980-1982. The projected program is subject to change and is in no way binding upon the Seminary. Tuition and fees listed herein cover the 1980-1981 academic year only and are subject to change in subsequent years without notice.

Princeton Theological Seminary does not discriminate because of race, color, sex, or age, and complies with the regulation for the handicapped Section 504.

The Seminary offices in the Administration Building are open from 8:30 until 4:30, Monday through Friday, and on Saturday mornings by appointment.

VISITING THE CAMPUS

PROSPECTIVE students are encouraged to visit the Seminary campus at their convenience. Arrangements should be made in advance with the Director of Student Relations or the Director of Admissions. Opportunities will be provided during such visits for personal interviews with members of the Seminary staff, attendance at classes, and informal discussion with Seminary students. Meals and lodging can be provided if a visiting prospective student so desires.

Such visits are not invariably a part of the admissions procedure, but they have proved helpful to both students and admissions personnel in evaluating the student's needs and interests in Seminary education. If a prospective visitor has applied for admission to Princeton Seminary, this should be indicated in correspondence about a proposed visit. Because the spring months of March, April, and May are unusually busy with applications for admission, a prospective student should plan his or her visit for other times of the year, when the chances are better for a relaxed and profitable stay.

GENERAL INFORMATION

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

THE purpose of Princeton Theological Seminary is to prepare men and women for able and faithful ministry in the Christian church and in present-day society. Committed to a learned ministry for church and society, the Seminary welcomes qualified students without regard to denomination, race, physical handicap, or sex. Through regular chapel worship and other campus functions, the Seminary seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of students, and through classroom and other academic activities to confront them in critical discussions about the Bible and Christian doctrine with probing questions about faith and life in today's world. The Seminary has one of the largest and most outstanding theological libraries in the world, a distinguished and experienced faculty, and a large campus of more than 20 buildings occupying an area of 30 acres in the center of the Princeton community. In the midst of wide diversity, with students of different academic and religious backgrounds, the Seminary encourages a spirit of Christian community on campus so that each individual may be heard, supported, and accepted, and all together be united in a common loyalty to Jesus Christ and his church.

HISTORY

Princeton Theological Seminary was established in 1812 by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to prepare pastors who, in the language of the day, "with various endowments, suiting them to different stations in the church of Christ, may all possess a portion of the spirit of the primitive propagators of the Gospel." The first Presbyterian school for pastors, Princeton was for many years known simply as "The Theological Seminary."

The Seminary and the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) are independent institutions although the College had been established in 1746 primarily to educate Presbyterian and other ministers. The early decades of the nineteenth century ushered in a time of tremendous geographical expansion, so that churches and denominations were forced to prepare an increasing number of ministers for the new frontiers. Seminaries such as Princeton began to specialize in Biblical and doctrinal subjects while colleges and universities moved more toward the liberal arts and the sciences.

Relations between Princeton Seminary and Princeton University have always been cordial and reciprocal. Today, for example, Seminary students enjoy the privileges of Firestone Library at the University and may take certain graduate and upper-division undergraduate University courses.

The first professors at Princeton Theological Seminary were Archibald Alexander, Samuel Miller, and Charles Hodge, a distinguished trio of great learning whose influence on church life and theological thinking persisted for more than a century. This early tradition of scholarship in the service of the Christian church became a trademark of Princeton Seminary and found expression in the leadership of the Seminary, in the highly qualified faculty, and in the steady stream of able graduates and alumni.

The Seminary has been served by a remarkable succession of eminent Presidents. Francis Landey Patton (1902-1913) came to the Seminary after serving as President of Princeton University. J. Ross Stevenson (1914-1936) guided the Seminary through some turbulent years and expanded the institution's vision and program. John A. Mackay (1936-1959) strengthened the faculty, enlarged the campus, and created a new ecumenical era for theological education.

James I. McCord became President in 1959. A Texan by background and a Reformed theologian, he previously served as professor and dean of a theological seminary in the Southwest. In the classical tradition of ecumenical commitment, he has given leadership both in the councils and agencies of The United Presbyterian Church and in the World Council of Churches and the World Alliance of Reformed Churches.

Affiliated from the beginning with the Presbyterian Church and the wider Reformed tradition, Princeton Theological Seminary is today a denominational school with an ecumenical, interdenominational, and world-wide constituency. This is reflected in the faculty, in the curriculum of studies, and in the student body.

ALUMNI AND SEMINARIANS

As one of the oldest seminaries in the country, Princeton has graduated more than 16,000 alumni of which one-half of that number are still living. One out of every ten graduates in every decade of the Seminary's history has served outside the United States. The Alumni Association is a well-organized and loyal group, proud of the Seminary's history and united in their commitment to Christ and his church.

In recent years, Seminarians have come from nearly 400 colleges and universities as well as from 90 other seminaries and from 80 denominations, including nearly all Protestant varieties as well as Roman and Eastern Orthodox Catholic Churches. While the flow of Seminary graduates as missionaries to other countries has been slowed somewhat because of the changed world situation, the traffic continues in the other direction with more than 60 international students from other lands registered at the Seminary in various degree programs.

With all the changes that history brings, Princeton Seminary is still committed to the expressed purpose of its original founders who declared that "piety of heart" must be combined with "solid learning" because, as they put it, "religion without learning or learning without religion in the ministers of the Gospel must ultimately prove injurious to the church."

THE SEMINARY AND THE COMMUNITY

Princeton is an academic, research, and residential community midway between New York and Philadelphia. Already on the map in colonial times, history was made here during the Revolution with George Washington and the Battle of Princeton. Aaron Burr, Jonathan Edwards, and Grover Cleveland lie buried in the Princeton cemetery. Woodrow Wilson graduated from the University to the White House, and Albert Einstein strolled back and forth from his home on Mercer Street, just below the Seminary, to his office at the Institute for Advanced Study.

With the passing of the years, the town has changed, but not much. The University still stands at the center of the community, but several other educational institutions, including the Seminary, have put down their roots in this congenial place. Princeton maintains its quiet residential atmosphere with a dozen or more national research laboratories ringing its outer edges.

Princeton is a small town but rich in educational and cultural resources, with libraries, museums, churches, theaters, concerts, athletic events, and a continuous program of lectures on the arts and sciences open to both town and gown. Princetonians do not complain that there is nothing to do.

CAMPUS

The Seminary campus, enlarged in 1943 by the acquisition of land and buildings in the Stockton Street complex, now covers more than thirty acres. The plant consists of an administration building, three classroom buildings, a library building, a chapel, a campus center building, four dormitories, three apartment houses, a gymnasium and athletic field, and a corporation yard. The Seminary also owns a considerable number of houses which are used as homes by members of the Faculty.

With reference to the map on page 2, most of the following buildings easily may be located.

MILLER CHAPEL. The chapel, built in 1834 by Charles Steadman, a local architect and builder of repute, was named for Samuel Miller, the second professor at the Seminary. Originally located beside Alexander Hall, it was moved in 1933 toward the center of the campus. Through its doors have passed vast numbers of students for prayer and praise, for communion and meditation, for reflection and inspiration, for preaching and instruction. The anthems, the hymns, the surging tones of the organ continue to roll daily across the campus when the Seminary is in session.

THE ROBERT E. SPEER LIBRARY. Erected in 1957 and named for the great missionary statesman, Robert E. Speer, a member of the class of 1933, this structure incorporates the contents of the former Lenox Reference and Circulating Libraries in a superb center for research and learning. In addition to a renowned theological collection, the building provides classrooms, study rooms, carrels, a meeting room for the Faculty and Board of Trustees, a reading room, and lounges. A description of the resources and book collections will be found on page 124.

STUART HALL. The architect of Stuart Hall could have had in mind the hymn "A Mighty Fortress" when he designed the massive and imposing walls and turrets. Constructed in 1876, a gift of Robert L. and Alexander Stuart of New York City, its lecture rooms have been the forum for the sharing of knowledge and wisdom between professor and student. In recent years a speech and communication studio was created on the third floor. The Theological Book Agency, the Women's Center, and the Admissions Office are located in the basement.

The Robert E. Speer Library

THE EDUCATION BUILDING. This structure, a portion of the property acquired in 1943, houses the Reigner Education Reading Room, two classrooms, and a number of offices for members of the Faculty. The Princeton Chapter of Recording for the Blind, Inc., is located in the basement.

ALEXANDER HALL. Originally called the "Old Seminary" and later renamed for Archibald Alexander, the first professor, who taught and worked within its walls until 1851, the building initially housed students, the library, the chapel, classrooms, and a refectory. Constructed in 1815 and still architecturally the heart of the campus, it was extensively renovated in the summer of 1978 and is now a dormitory consisting largely of single rooms. The bell in the cupola summons the campus community to classes, to worship, to meals, and to meetings.

BROWN HALL. The gift of Mrs. George Brown of Baltimore, this structure was opened in 1865 as a men's dormitory. A host of students have lived here, coming from urban and rural areas, East and West coast, and six continents. The building was thoroughly renovated in the summer of 1979 to provide single-room accommodations for about 80 men and women students.

HODGE HALL. Completed in 1893, this building was named for the Seminary's distinguished third professor, Charles Hodge. The L-shaped plan permits each room to receive sunlight during some part of each day. Originally a dormitory for men, it was later renovated to house women and married couples as well. The first floor contains administrative offices, and in the basement are printing facilities and the mail-room. The upper three floors will be remodeled in the summer of 1980, providing facilities for about 70 students in single rooms and three-room suites.

TENNENT HALL. One of several buildings purchased in 1943 to provide a much needed center for the School of Christian Education, Tennent Hall is named for William Tennent, who in 1726 founded the Log College, forerunner of Princeton University. In addition, there is here perpetuated the name of the Tennent College of Christian Education of Philadelphia, which assigned its assets in trust to the Seminary for the conduct of instruction in the field of Christian education on the graduate level. The first dormitory for women on the Seminary campus, Tennent Hall now contains apartments and rooms for students in all programs.

NORTH HALL-SOUTH HALL. These units, adjacent to the Education Building, contain apartments of varying size to accommodate married students who prefer to live within walking distance of the main campus of the Seminary.

PAYNE HALL. This hall for the housing of missionaries on furlough was given in 1922 by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin N. Payne of Titusville, Pennsylvania. It contains fully furnished apartments for twelve families. In assigning apartments, preference is given to missionaries and fraternal workers who propose taking a regular course of study in the Seminary.

THE WHITELEY GYMNASIUM. The gymnasium, purchased as a part of the Stockton Street complex, is named for Mrs. George H. Whiteley of York, Pennsylvania, who bequeathed a sum of money for a gymnasium originally designed to be part of a student center building. Facilities include courts for basketball, squash, and handball.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING. This building, located in the center of the campus, was originally constructed as a refectory. Converted into a gymnasium in 1910, it was thoroughly renovated a half century later to bring under one roof most of the administrative offices of the Seminary.

CAMPUS CENTER. Completed in 1952, the Campus Center provides a place for many Seminary activities. Facilities which had been scattered in a number of eating clubs were replaced by one dining center. The building contains two dining rooms and a kitchen, a large auditorium with stage, lounges, meeting rooms, Faculty offices, and guest accommodations. In the words on the tablet in the foyer: "This building is dedicated to the creation on this campus of a Christian community whose members, drawn from diverse lands and churches, shall serve in all the world the one church which is Christ's body."

CHARLOTTE RACHEL WILSON APARTMENTS. On U.S. Route 1, about two miles south of the campus as the crow flies, stand the Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments, named in memory of the mother of a beloved friend of the Seminary, Mrs. Charlotte T. Newcombe. Her generous legacy lifted the mortgage from this very useful property which includes 25 two-story buildings, each containing eight apartments, some with one bedroom and others with two. They are available to married students with or without children. An attended outdoor pool and other recreational facilities are on the grounds.

CARRIAGE HOUSE. This building, situated a few hundred feet from Speer Library, was purchased by the Seminary in 1965. It contains two seminar rooms and several Faculty offices.

ERDMAN HALL. In memory of Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Erdman, alumni and friends raised more than a million dollars to erect a dormitory, dedicated in 1971, on the site of their home, thus remembering their gracious hospitality. Dr. Erdman was a member of the class of 1891 and a member of the Faculty from 1905 to 1936. One section of the building is a dormitory for men and women; the other section provides residential quarters for the Center of Continuing Education.

ADAMS HOUSE. Located across Library Place from Speer Library, the building that was once a private residence and now houses the Center of Continuing Education has been named in memory of Dean Arthur M. Adams. Dean Adams was instrumental in the founding of the Center and supervised its program. Over 5,000 persons, both clergy and lay, participate here annually.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

APPLICATION

A student desiring to enter the Seminary must file a formal application, a copy of which will be sent upon request. A non-refundable fee of $25.00 is required both of new applicants and of alumni seeking admission to advanced programs. Princeton Seminary admits qualified men and women students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin, irrespective of physical handicap.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF DIVINITY

The program of study set forth for the Master of Divinity degree is designed to prepare students for the parish ministry, for graduate study in theology and related disciplines, for various types of chaplaincy, for mission work at home and abroad, and for other forms of church vocation. The curriculum is planned to provide the maximum of flexibility and independence consonant with a broad theological foundation.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Persons whose applications for the degree of Master of Divinity (M.Div.) are filed with the Director of Admissions prior to December 15 for the following academic year will receive notification by March 1. Subsequently, applications completed by March 1 will be acted upon by March 20. Although applications submitted between March 1 and August 1 also will receive serious consideration, preference will be given to those who have applied earlier.

It is recommended that the candidate's baccalaureate preparation include at least sixty semester hours, or twenty semester courses, in such liberal arts studies as English, philosophy, literature, history, and ancient and modern languages, together with some work in the natural and human sciences, especially psychology and sociology.

An applicant for the M.Div. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. A letter of evaluation and endorsement from the minister or governing body of the church with which he or she is affiliated, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for seminary study.

b. A transcript of all college or university work pursued to date. If accepted, a supplementary transcript must be provided, indicating the completion of a regular course of academic study and the awarding of a baccalaureate degree by an approved college or university. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this supplementary record has been received.

c. A report of academic standing from his or her college or university.

d. Three photographs, 2 x 3 inches, due before formal matriculation.

e. Wherever feasible, an interview with a member of the Seminary staff.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The components of the Master of Divinity program are three in number:

1. Twenty-four courses and six practicums, ordinarily distributed over six semesters of full-time resident study. Certain of the courses and practicums are prescribed, and the remainder are to be drawn from available electives or special courses. In some instances required courses and practicums may be waived by examination or other means.

2. A program of Senior studies in some area of the curriculum. This program, pursued under the direction of a Faculty adviser, shall embrace from three to five courses beyond the general distribution requirement and may, at the option of qualified students, involve the preparation of a thesis.

3. The completion of an approved program of field education, the nature of which is elaborated on page 121 of this catalogue.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE

Instruction in the Seminary is broadly organized under four academic departments, and portions of the curricular requirements are assigned to each of these departments.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

The student is required to elect six courses in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

(a) Courses OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies, and NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies. These courses ordinarily are taken during the Junior year. If a student has received adequate prior instruction in the subject matter covered by either or both of these classes, the requirement or requirements may be waived by the Office of Professional Studies.

(b) Four additional courses, not all in the same Testament, normally drawn from those numbered OT11 or NT11 and above. If a student enrolls for either or both of the full year language-exegesis classes (OT03,-04 and NT03,-04), he or she will receive an allowance of one course toward the distribution requirement for each full year class successfully completed, provided he or she also includes among the four departmental courses another course in the Testament concerned.

Students entering as candidates for the Master of Divinity degree who have studied Greek may take a placement examination in Greek to demonstrate their ability to carry on exegetical work in New Testament. This examination will seek to determine (a) the candidate's ability to decline nouns, adjectives, and participles and to conjugate and parse (analyze) verbs; (b) his or her acquaintance with fundamental syntactical constructions (such as those dealt with in J. G. Machen's New Testament Greek for Beginners, Macmillan Company); and (c) his or her proficiency in translating simple Greek prose. At the examination the student will have a choice between a passage from Xenophon's Anabasis, Book I, and one from the Gospel of Mark.

HISTORY

The student is required to elect four courses in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

(a) In the division of Church History: both CH01, History of Christianity I, and CH02, History of Christianity II. If a student's college transcript indicates adequate prior instruction in the subject matter covered by either or both of these courses, the requirement or requirements may be waived by the Director of Professional Studies.

(b) Two other courses in the department, at least one of which shall be from History of Religions, Church and Society, or Ecumenics.

THEOLOGY

The student is required to elect four courses in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

(a) Course TH01, Introduction to Theology. If a student's college transcript indicates adequate prior instruction in the subject matter covered by this course, the Office of Professional Studies may approve the substitution of another course in Doctrinal Theology for this portion of the requirement.

(b) A course dealing with a major theologian or basic Christian doctrine, selected from a currently-approved list. The student is, of course, free to elect other classes from this group. Approved courses listed in this catalogue (with some titles summarized) are:

ET06	Ethical Dimensions of Theological Understanding
ET16	Dietrich Bonhoeffer
ET17	Reinhold Niebuhr
HD15	Augustine
HD16	Thomas Aquinas
HD21	Luther
HD22	Calvin's Institutes
HD28	Theology of Presbyterianism
TH11	Doctrine of God
TH12	Christology
TH13	Person and Work of the Spirit
TH17	Church, Ministry, and Sacraments
TH18	Whither the Body of Christ?
TH21	Christian Visions of the Self and Humankind
TH32	Schleiermacher
TH36	Jonathan Edwards
TH38	Reformed Theology
TH40	Theology of Karl Barth
PH21	Austin Farrer

(c) A course in Philosophy or Christian Ethics.

(d) A course drawn from any of the departmental divisions.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

The student is required to include in his or her program three courses and six practicums drawn from the offerings available in this department. The courses must be selected from at least two of the departmental divisions. Beyond this stipulation, the distribution of work shall embrace:

(a) Practicum SP01, Fundamentals of Expression, unless this requirement is waived by the passing of a placement examination.

(b) Course PR01, Introduction to Preaching, followed by practicum PR02. Course PR01 must be completed by the end of the first semester of the Middle year; practicum PR02 is designed for the Middle year. This portion of the requirement may be waived only by written approval of the Director of Professional Studies and upon a review of the student's vocational plans and the policies of his or her denomination.

(c) One practicum in the polity of the church with which the student is affiliated, unless this requirement is waived by the passing of a placement examination.

In certain instances it is possible, upon petition to the Office of Professional Studies, to substitute a course for a practicum. Such substitution is permissible where the course includes a significant element of student participation and practice in the area covered by the practicum. Students who pursue this option may be certified for graduation with fewer than six practicums, provided the total number of courses in their program is correspondingly increased beyond twenty-four.

CANDIDATES PURSUING STUDIES PART-TIME

Under ordinary circumstances the student is encouraged to pursue the program on a full-time resident basis. He or she is said to be in residence when it is possible regularly to make use of the classroom and library facilities of the Seminary during the major portions of five days each week throughout the semester, including the period set aside for reading and review. In case of demonstrated need, however, permission may be granted to conduct a portion of the program in part-time candidacy. During the period of part-time work tuition is paid by the course or practicum and the student is ineligible for financial assistance from the Seminary. The program of every M.Div. candidate must include at least two semesters of full-time resident study.

ACCELERATED PROGRAM IN MINISTRY AND SOCIAL WORK

A limited number of students can be accepted each year for an accelerated program leading to the Master of Divinity degree from the Seminary and the Master of Social Work degree from Rutgers University. This program is designed for students who expect to enter forms of ministry requiring competence both in the disciplines of theology and in those associated with social work.

The M.Div. requirements are completed as usual in the first three years. During the third year up to two courses taken at Rutgers University may be credited toward the Seminary degree. Immediately following the granting of the M.Div. degree, the student enters the summer session at the Graduate School of Social Work with advanced standing and may complete all requirements for the M.S.W. by June of the fourth academic year.

Applications for this program should be filed with the Director of Admissions of the Seminary by May 1 of the second year of theological study. A special bulletin covering the requirements of this program is available upon request.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The program of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Christian education is designed as preparation for service in various professional capacities, particularly that of director of Christian education or religious education coordinator in the parish. This curriculum is approved by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton for the professional training of religious educators.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Master of Arts in Christian education (M.A.) should be filed with the Director of Admissions prior to March 15 for the following academic year. Although applications submitted between March 15 and August 1 also will receive serious consideration, preference will be given to those who have applied earlier.

The Admissions Committee holds regular meetings throughout the year and acts on those applications for which the files of credentials are complete. Each applicant will be notified of the committee's action as soon as practicable after a decision has been reached.

An applicant for the M.A. degree in Christian education is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. A letter of evaluation and endorsement from the minister or governing body of the church with which he or she is affiliated, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for seminary study.

b. A transcript of all college or university work pursued to date. If accepted, a supplementary transcript must be provided, indicating the completion of a regular course of academic study and the awarding of a baccalaureate degree by an approved college or university. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this supplementary record has been received.

c. A report of academic standing from his or her college or university.

d. Three photographs, 2 x 3 inches, due before formal matriculation.

e. Wherever feasible, an interview with a member of the Seminary staff.

Applicants who receive notice of admission prior to February 15 must indicate to the Director by March 15 whether or not they will accept admission to the Seminary. Applicants receiving notification after February 15 must indicate their decision within thirty days.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The components of the Master of Arts program in Christian education are three in number:

1. Sixteen courses and four practicums distributed over four semesters of study. Certain of the courses and practicums are prescribed, and the remainder are to be drawn from available electives or special courses.

2. A professional examination over the basic material in Christian education and in the other areas of the Seminary program. The preparation for this examination should be done partly through formal courses and partly through independent reading. At the beginning of the first year the student will receive a syllabus for the examination, indicating the essential areas to be covered and the bibliography to be employed. The professional examination will be given at the end of the first semester of the final year of study.

3. The completion of an approved program of field education, the nature of which is elaborated on page 122 of this catalogue.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE

Instruction in the Seminary is broadly organized under four academic departments, and portions of the curricular requirements are assigned to each of these departments.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

Two specific courses in this department are normally required of all students and should be taken during the first year in the program:

OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies

NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies

If a student has received adequate college instruction in the subject matter covered by either or both of these courses, the Office of Professional Studies may authorize the substitution of more advanced work in the departmental division or divisions concerned.

HISTORY

The student is required to elect two courses in this department, one of which shall be in the division of Church History and one in another of the divisions. The course in Church History shall be either CH01, History of Christianity I, or CH02, History of Christianity II, unless advanced placement is authorized by the Office of Professional Studies on the basis of adequate college instruction in the history of the church.

THEOLOGY

The student is required to elect two courses in this department, one of which shall be in the division of Doctrinal Theology and one in another of the divisions. The course in Doctrinal Theology shall be TH01, Introduction to Theology, unless advanced placement is authorized by the Office of Professional Studies on the basis of adequate college instruction in the subject matter of the course.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

The student is required to include in his or her program six courses and four practicums from the offerings of this department. The work shall be distributed as follows:

- (a) Course ED01, Introduction to Christian Education Theory.
- (b) One course from the following group—
 - ED11 Philosophy of Education*
 - ED13 History of Education*
 - ED15 Educational Psychology*
 - ED16 Developmental Psychology*
 - ED88 Sociocultural Foundations of Education*
- (c) One course from the following group—
 - ED41 Christian Education of Adults*
 - ED42 Christian Education of Youth*
 - ED43 Christian Education of Children*
- (d) One course from the following group—
 - ED31 Administration of Christian Education*
 - ED32 Supervision of Christian Education*
 - ED33 Method in Christian Education*
 - ED34 Curriculum in Christian Education*
- (e) Two courses from some other division or divisions of the Department of Practical Theology.
- (f) Practicum SP01, Fundamentals of Expression, unless this requirement is waived by the passing of a placement examination.
- (g) A practicum in the polity of the church with which the student is affiliated, unless this requirement is waived by the passing of a placement examination.
- (h) Two additional practicums of the student's choice.

Candidates in the Diocese of Trenton program are required, in addition, to take either course ED03, Perspectives in Roman Catholic Religious Education, or course ED04, Roman Catholic Religious Education Since Vatican II.

POST-M.DIV. PROGRAM

Candidates who hold the M.Div. degree ordinarily can complete the M.A. in Christian education requirements in one additional year of full-time study. In each case the specific program components will be determined in terms of the student's previous education and experience.

MASTER OF ARTS IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The program leading to the degree of Master of Arts in theological studies is designed to provide graduate education for persons currently engaged professionally in the teaching ministry of the church or for persons who have an attested expectation of such engagement. In no way a step to or substitute for the doctorate, it is available to a limited number of candidates for whom such a two-year course is the normal qualification for appointment or advancement as a professional theological educator.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Master of Arts in theological studies (M.A.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Director of Admissions by March 1 for the following academic year. Applicants from overseas should endeavor to complete their files by February 1, in order that adequate time may be available for securing necessary travel papers. The Admissions Committee holds meetings periodically throughout the academic year, and applicants are notified of the committee's action as soon as practicable after a decision has been reached. Those who seek admission to this program will find it to their advantage to make application at an early date, since the number of positions available is closely limited.

An applicant for the M.A. degree in theological studies is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. Transcripts of all college, university, and seminary work pursued to date. In order to qualify for consideration the applicant must hold the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or its formal educational equivalent, from an approved institution, and either—

The degree of Master of Arts in Christian education or in one of the humanities or social sciences from an approved graduate institution, or

The degree of Master of Divinity, or its formal theological equivalent, from an approved seminary.

In the event one of the latter programs is in progress at the time of application, a supplementary transcript must be provided before matriculation, attesting to the satisfactory completion of that work.

b. A statement describing the professional educational work in which the applicant presently is engaged, or in which he or she has promise of being engaged, and indicating how the M.A. in theological studies is appropriate to this activity. Since in many educational systems the doctorate represents the normal qualification for appointment or advancement, it usually will be necessary to include a statement from the employing organization, or prospective employer, stating that the M.A. is considered acceptable for this purpose.

c. A proposal, based upon the current catalogue of the Seminary, outlining a possible program of courses related to the candidate's area of specialization that would meet his or her educational objectives. Although this proposal will not be considered as final and binding upon the parties, it is carefully reviewed by a committee of the Faculty with a view to ascertaining whether the needs of the applicant can be met within the resources of the Seminary.

Applicants who are admitted to the program must give to the Director of Admission written notice of their decision to accept admission, according to deadlines provided to the Director.

PROGRAM

The studies of a candidate for the M.A. degree in theological studies are pursued under the general supervision of the Director of Professional Studies and under the immediate guidance of a Faculty adviser. Where the resources of the Seminary are especially extensive, work may be conducted in a single field of inquiry. In most instances, however, the candidate will distribute his or her courses over two or even three appropriately related areas. The program is designed to find focus in the classical disciplines of theological inquiry, where attention can be directed to theoretical foundations, basic methodology, historical perspectives, and contemporary trends. The Seminary discourages applications from persons who desire work that is primarily clinical or laboratory in nature.

Satisfactory completion of sixteen courses is required for the M.A. degree in theological studies. If the candidate elects, in consultation with his or her Faculty adviser, to submit a thesis in partial fulfillment of the requirement, it shall be assigned two courses of academic credit. The candidate who does not prepare a thesis must instead pursue one or two courses which will require the writing of an essay or essays, giving evidence of ability to engage in research and present the results in an acceptable literary and academic form.

The candidate must spend at least four semesters in residence in order to qualify for the degree. Where work is conducted on a part time basis, the residence period will be proportionately increased. A program may not extend over more than eight consecutive semesters, or eight semesters in total, without the approval of the Director of Professional Studies.

Work pursued in other graduate institutions or schools of theology may not be used to reduce the course or residence requirement at Princeton Seminary. Persons who initially apply for Ph.D. candidacy in the Seminary ordinarily will not be considered for the M.A. degree in theological studies.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The program of studies for the degree of Master of Theology is designed for students who wish to improve or deepen their preparation for the ministry beyond the level reached by their M.Div. course, or who desire to acquire a preparation for specialized ministries of the church.

Special arrangements also have been made with the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton to meet the needs of personnel related to this jurisdiction.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.) together with the necessary supporting documents, should be filed with the Director of Admissions by August 1 for the following academic year. The Admissions Committee holds meetings periodically throughout the year to consider those applications for which the files of credentials are complete. Each applicant will be notified of the committee's action as soon as practicable after a decision has been reached. Those who seek admission to this program will find it to their advantage to make application at an early date, since the number of positions available in some fields is necessarily limited.

An applicant for the Th.M. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

- a. A letter from his or her minister or ecclesiastical superior, stating that he or she is in good and regular standing with the denomination.*

b. Three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for graduate theological study.

c. A transcript of all college and seminary work pursued to date. If accepted, evidence must be provided to show that the applicant has been awarded the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity, or their equivalents, from approved institutions. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this record has been received.

d. A report of academic standing from his or her seminary.

e. Three photographs, 2 x 3 inches, due before formal matriculation.

Applicants wishing to receive the Th.M. degree in the Department of Biblical Studies must have a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew.

Applicants who receive notice of admission prior to February 15 must indicate to the Director by March 15 whether or not they will accept admission to the Seminary. Applicants receiving notification after February 15 must indicate their decision within thirty days.

PROGRAM

Eight courses are required for the Th.M. degree. If the candidate wishes to present a thesis (which carries the credit of two courses), six courses are required in addition to the thesis. These courses ordinarily must be taken in the area of the department in which the candidate is specializing. However, the student may be permitted to take courses in other areas of the department, or in areas of other departments, if in the judgment of his or her Faculty adviser these courses are related to the student's field of concentration.

The candidate who seeks the degree without the presentation of a thesis must pursue one or two courses which will require the writing of an essay or essays, which give evidence of ability to engage in research and present his or her investigations in an acceptable literary and academic form.

Each candidate will be assigned an adviser by the Office of Professional Studies. Candidates will arrange their programs of study in consultation with their advisers, and in accordance with the programs developed for their chosen areas of study. As a rule, introductory level courses may not be chosen for credit toward the Th.M. degree. In special cases, the student's adviser may give permission for selecting such courses, provided the instructor will give special assignments in accordance with the requirements for the Th.M. degree.

When a thesis is presented in partial fulfillment of degree requirements, it must be submitted to the professor concerned by May 1. It must have special merit, be approved by the adviser-professor, and be acceptable to the Director of Professional Studies.

The candidate must spend a minimum of one year in residence and should, within that period, normally complete both his or her courses and the thesis (where applicable). The schedule of courses in several program areas is so arranged, however, that candidates may attend class one day each week for four semesters in succession, and receive the degree in two years. Class days may vary from semester to semester. If an extension of time is desired, the candidate must make petition to the Director of Professional Studies. Extensions ordinarily are granted for one or two semesters at a time.

Candidates must attain an average of B- (B minus) or better in order to qualify for the Th.M. degree.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

The program of studies for the degree of Doctor of Ministry is designed for men and women who wish to pursue, at an advanced level, education for ministerial practice. It is oriented not to teaching and research, although aspects of these activities are essential to any form of effective ministry, but to the integration of theological and behavioral understandings in the context of continuing responsible engagement in service. Accordingly, the candidate is expected to be engaged in a recognized form of full-time ministerial practice for the duration of the program.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.), together with the necessary supporting documents, should be filed with the Director of D.Min. Studies not later than April 1 for the following academic year and the summer thereafter. Applicants are informed of the decision of the Admissions Committee on or about May 15.

An applicant for the D.Min. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. After admission and before matriculation an endorsement from his or her session, governing board, or supervisor, approving the expenditure of time called for by the program.

b. An official transcript of all college and seminary work pursued to date. Included must be indications that the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity, or their equivalents, were received from approved institutions.

c. Three letters of reference in which assessment is made of his or her ministerial practice.

d. An extended personal statement dealing with aspects of his or her ministerial practice and including a tentative sketch of a feasible thesis project.

The program normally is limited to persons who have been engaged in the regular practice of ministry for a period of at least three to five years. Applicants who receive notice of admission to the program must indicate to the Director within thirty days whether or not they intend to accept that admission.

PROGRAM

The phases of the curriculum leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree are four in number:

1. Satisfactory completion of two terms of workshop experience. The candidate participates with a dozen ministerial colleagues and members of the Faculty. Here concrete situations arising in ministry, together with the candidate's own patterns of practice, are critically assessed. For persons within commuting distance, workshops sometimes are scheduled to meet one day each week throughout two semesters; for those beyond commuting distance, and often for those within commuting distance as well, concentrated terms are scheduled for three-week periods in July.

2. Individualized preparation for the qualifying examination. No specific courses are required of candidates generally, beyond the two terms of workshop. Each candidate prepares a self-evaluation in the light of workshop critiques, and at the conclusion of the first workshop outlines an individual program of preparation for the qualifying examination. This program may include summer school courses, conferences, laboratories, clinical pastoral education units, or other forms of education at Princeton or elsewhere.

3. Satisfactory completion of the qualifying examination. Candidates must pass an examination in which they analyze case situations of ministry from the four perspectives used throughout the D.Min. program: (a) caring and restorative aspects of ministry, (b) communicative and educative aspects of ministry, (c) administrative and organizational aspects of ministry, and (d) theological and ethical aspects of ministry. The examination is taken between the first and second workshops for both diagnostic and credit purposes, and portions not passed are retaken at scheduled examination periods following the second workshop.

4. A thesis project in some area associated with the practice of ministry. This project, written under the supervision of members of the Faculty, may take a form appropriate to the subject matter involved.

Failure to pay tuition or continuation fees by the end of the second semester of an academic year, without written approval of the Business Manager, will terminate the candidacy.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The Doctor of Philosophy program is designed to prepare men and women for independent scholarship in various dimensions of the study of religion and for teaching in colleges and theological seminaries. Work currently is offered in six areas:

1. Biblical Studies [Old and/or New Testament]
2. History of Christianity
3. Theology [History of Christian Doctrine, Systematic Theology, Philosophy and Theology, Christian Ethics]
4. Religion and Society [Sociology of Religion, Social Ethics, Ecu-menics]
5. Practical Theology [Christian Education, Pastoral Theology, Theology and Communication in Preaching]

Upon petition, interdisciplinary programs are also sometimes approved and are pursued under the direct supervision of the Committee on Ph.D. Studies.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Academic Dean. Applications and supporting materials must be in Princeton by January 16, 1981. Applicants will be informed of the decision of the Committee on or about March the first.

An applicant for the Ph.D. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. Transcripts of all college and seminary work pursued to date. Evidence must be provided to show that the applicant has been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts or its equivalent from an approved college or university, and the degree of Master of Divinity or its equivalent from an approved theological institution.

The M.Div. degree is required of candidates in Pastoral Theology and in Theology and Communication in Preaching. In other fields of study, if the M.Div. or its equivalent be absent, a minimum of two years of graduate study in religion is required, and, in the case of Christian Education, an M.A. or equivalent degree from an accredited seminary or graduate school. Included in the two years must be a course in each of Old Testament; New Testament; systematic theology, philosophy, or ethics; history of religions; a human science in relation to religion; and two courses in the history of Christianity.

b. The results of the Aptitude Test of the Graduate Record Examination and, for some fields, an appropriate Advanced Test. This examination is given at numerous centers throughout the world by the Educational Testing Service. Applications to take the examination should be sent to The Graduate Record Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08540, or (for far western states) Box 27896, Los Angeles, California 90027. For applicants whose native language is not English, the Test of English as a Foreign Language, also administered by Educational Testing Service, is to be substituted. The Educational Testing Service will transmit the examination results directly to Princeton Seminary.

Candidates in Religion and Society may be required to take the Advanced Test in Sociology, not as a basis of admission but for the purpose of placement and guidance.

Candidates in the Practical areas are required to submit evidence of professional practice under close supervision, or else must arrange to engage in such practice during their period of residence.

c. An essay or research paper in his or her intended area of specialization. This paper, either previously or specially prepared, should, in the mind of the applicant, be representative of his or her best work. It need not exceed fifteen or twenty pages, although no maximum length is prescribed. It will be evaluated by the following standards as evidence of the candidate's ability to work on the doctoral level: (1) understanding of the subject treated and the materials used, (2) knowledge of relevant bibliography, (3) cogency and clarity of argument, and (4) constructive originality of thought.

Applicants who receive notice that their applications have been approved must indicate to the Dean within thirty days whether or not they intend to accept admission to the Seminary.

THE SEQUENCE OF A TYPICAL PROGRAM

The program of any particular doctoral candidate may deviate from the following outline at some points, but this sketch indicates in general what may be anticipated. More complete information concerning the Ph.D. program may be obtained by addressing the Academic Dean.

1. It is necessary for the entering doctoral candidate to demonstrate a working knowledge of at least one of the required modern languages prior to matriculation. The appropriate Graduate School Foreign Language Test, administered by Princeton Seminary, must be passed at the latest in September. Candidates who do not submit satisfactory scores are not permitted to register for any courses except modern languages and are not eligible for financial aid. If the language test is not passed before the beginning of the second semester, candidacy in the program will be terminated. In similar fashion, the second language examination should be passed as early as possible, and at the latest in September prior to the opening of the second year of residence as a condition of registration.

2. An orientation day for incoming doctoral students is held immediately before the opening of the fall term in September. Questions of registration and advisement are handled at this time. The student is assigned a primary adviser and, usually, two other members of his or her residence committee. It is from this residence committee and especially its chairperson that the student secures counsel with regard to courses and other aspects of his or her program until the time of the comprehensive examinations.

3. A two-year period of full-time resident study prior to the completion of the comprehensive examinations is normally required. In no case is advanced standing granted at the time of acceptance for candidacy. In exceptional cases the Committee on Ph.D. Studies may later reduce the time of resident preparation for the comprehensive examinations on recommendation of the candidate's department. Under no condition will the minimum requirement of two years' full time tuition be reduced. The candidate must complete the residence requirement and pass the comprehensive examinations within four years.

4. In the second term of the first year of residence the student's work is reviewed by his or her residence committee and further courses of study are planned, leading to the comprehensive examinations, if satisfactory progress has been made.

5. The period of resident study culminates in the comprehensive examinations which are usually four or five in number, designed for five hours of writing each, followed by an oral of approximately two hours. With the permission of the candidate's residence committee and department, an essay may be presented in lieu of one of the examination papers. Other variations in testing procedure must be approved by the Committee on Ph.D. Studies. With specific exceptions approved by departments and the Committee on Ph.D. Studies, all examinations should be taken at one period, of which there are three each year. Dates for 1980-1981 are September and early October, January, and May. Students are encouraged to take the comprehensive examinations in May of the second year of residence. The latest date by which they may be completed without special permission from the Committee on Ph.D. Studies is January of the year following the completion of residence. With permission of the candidate's residence committee and department, the examinations may be divided between no more than two of the dates within this period. Under no circumstances may examinations be undertaken until all language requirements have been satisfied, or completed before a dissertation proposal has been approved by the Committee on Ph.D. Studies.

6. The student is urged to give thought to possible areas and topics for the dissertation from the very beginning of residency. Seminar and course papers might well be chosen in part to explore such possibilities. A dissertation proposal should be worked out with the committee during the first semester of the second year of residence. In a form satisfactory to that residence committee, it must be submitted to the Committee on Ph.D. Studies early in the second semester, at least two term-time months before the date of the comprehensive examinations or, where they are divided, the final written portions thereof. Candidates are urged to consider the dissertation proposal seminar listed on page 116 of this catalogue. With the proposal in view, the Committee on Ph.D. Studies will consider the candidate's own suggestions and appoint a dissertation committee upon nomination by the department concerned. The chairperson of the dissertation committee must be a full-time member of the Seminary Faculty.

7. Upon satisfactory completion of the comprehensive examinations, the student prepares a dissertation, following procedures of counsel and evaluation agreed upon with the members of his or her dissertation committee. The dissertation, together with an abstract of not more than 600 words, must be presented by March 15 of the year in which the degree is to be conferred.

8. A final public oral examination on the dissertation is required. The date is set by the dissertation committee, in consultation with the candidate and with the approval of the Academic Dean, after the dissertation has been accepted for examination. Upon satisfactory completion of this examination the candidate is recommended for the degree by the examiners.

9. At least one day prior to the last regular Faculty meeting of the second semester, two copies of the dissertation and abstract, one bound and one unbound, must be deposited in the Office of Ph.D. Studies.

The dissertation is made available to the scholarly world by microfilm, for which the candidate completes the Microfilm Publication Agreement Form in the Office of the Academic Dean. The abstract is published in Dissertation Abstracts.

Upon the completion of full-time resident study, candidacy is maintained by the payment of an annual continuation fee of $300. This fee is designed to cover the cost of institutional services ordinarily rendered to a student actively engaged in the writing of a dissertation. It does not envision, however, the pursuit of additional courses for academic credit. All degree requirements normally must be completed within six years of the beginning of candidacy. In unusual circumstances the Committee on Ph.D. Studies may authorize a relaxation of this rule, but in such cases the continuation fee is increased to $600 per year. Failure to pay tuition or continuation fees for an academic year without written approval of the Business Manager will terminate the candidacy.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS AND REQUIREMENTS

SPECIAL STUDENTS

The Seminary admits a limited number of qualified applicants who desire to pursue studies in the Seminary but who do not wish to enroll as candidates for a degree. Such students must make regular application through the Director of Admissions. Special students usually are admitted for only one year of study and pursue a carefully selected group of courses under the Faculty adviser. Special students pay tuition either by the semester or by the course or practicum.

AUDITORS

Regularly enrolled students and guests of the Seminary may audit classes provided they have secured the consent of the professors involved and have enrolled with the Registrar. No record will be maintained of any classes attended on this basis. Qualified persons who are not students of the Seminary may audit classes provided they have secured the permission of the professors involved, have enrolled with the Registrar, and (unless they are husbands or wives of regular students, or certified pastors in the Teaching Church Program) have paid the required fee for each course audited. Applicants should correspond with the Registrar. No auditors will be received after the first day of the term.

VISITING FELLOWS

The Seminary offers its facilities to a limited number of mature scholars who wish to engage in research. Such students are listed as Visiting Fellows and are granted the use of the library. The privilege of attending classes is open to them, provided they have the permission of the Registrar and the professors involved. Limited housing facilities on campus are available. Applicants should correspond with the President.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

A student who has taken part of the theological course in another approved seminary and who desires to become a candidate for the M.Div. degree, or the M.A. degree in Christian education, may make application for admission with advanced standing. In addition to the regular admission credentials outlined above, such an applicant must present a letter from the seminary in which he or she currently is enrolled, certifying to his or her good standing and dismissing him or her to this Seminary. A student admitted by transfer from another seminary will need to devote at least two years to full time resident study in order to complete the requirements for the M.Div. degree. In no instance may a period of internship be accepted in fulfillment of a portion of the residence requirement. Applicants for other degree programs cannot be admitted with advanced standing.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Along with the other admission credentials, an international student desiring to enter the Seminary is required to have sent to the Director of Admissions (or, in the case of a Ph.D. applicant, the Academic Dean) a statement from his or her national church endorsing his or her educational plans as necessary preparation for a position of leadership in that church.

Not infrequently an application is received from a student whose preparatory education reflects a system rather different from that typical of the United States. In such instances, the equivalent of the A.B. degree is considered to be four years of regular academic study, primarily in the humanities, arts, and sciences, beyond the secondary (G.C.E.) level. Three additional years of full time study, principally in the disciplines of theology, are then required to establish M.Div. equivalency.

In the case of an international student whose native language is not English, final approval of the application shall be contingent upon the receipt of a certificate of proficiency in written and spoken English. The basis of evaluation shall be the examination prepared by the Educational Testing Service unless the Director of Admissions or Committee on Ph.D.

Studies shall specify an alternative instrument. The fee for any such test shall be borne by the applicant. After the student has undertaken a Seminary program, he or she may be required to withdraw from candidacy or from further study if, in the judgment of the Faculty, he or she is found to be inadequately prepared in the English language.

MID-YEAR ADMISSION

Under ordinary circumstances the student should begin Seminary work in the fall of the year. For good reasons, however, candidates for the M.Div., M.A., and Th.M. degrees, as well as Special students, may undertake their studies at the beginning of the second semester. This privilege cannot be extended to candidates for the Ph.D. degree.

TEACHER CERTIFICATION

Through a cooperative arrangement with Princeton University's Teacher Preparation and Placement Program, it is possible for selected Seminary students to obtain state secondary school teacher certification. Inquiries should be directed to Mr. Wyckoff at the School of Christian Education.

MATRICULATION

Entering students who have presented satisfactory credentials are matriculated by subscribing to the following declaration required by the 1811 Plan of the Seminary:

“Deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of improving in knowledge, prudence, and piety, in my preparation for the Gospel ministry, I solemnly promise, in a reliance on divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend on all the instructions of this Seminary, and that I will conscientiously and vigilantly observe all the rules and regulations specified in the plan for its instruction and government, so far as the same relate to the students; and that I will obey all the lawful requisitions, and readily yield to all the wholesome admonitions of the Professors and Trustees of the Seminary, while I shall continue a member of it.”

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Additional rules and regulations governing life at the Seminary and the maintenance of candidacy are contained in the Handbook. This publication, issued each year at the beginning of the autumn semester, represents a portion of the educational contract between the student and the Seminary.

OTHER EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES
AT THE SEMINARY

THE PRINCETON INSTITUTE OF THEOLOGY

EACH SUMMER, usually during the early weeks of July, the Princeton Institute of Theology is in session on the campus. Ministers, educators, and church laypersons share for ten days in the classes, forums, workshops, and convocations. Guest professors and pastors from across the nation and overseas, as well as Princeton Faculty members and international representatives, provide the leadership in thought and discussion. The year 1980 is the thirty-ninth in which several hundred men and women from many denominations and many areas of service will gather for instruction and inspiration. Inquiries may be addressed to The Princeton Institute of Theology, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

The program for the 1980 Institute, June 30-July 10, with focus on the theme "Yours Is the Kingdom," is as follows:

BIBLE HOURS:

First Week—James A. Sanders

Second Week—Donald H. Juel

Both Weeks—Special Session for Korean-American Pastors

CONVOCATIONS:

First Week—Bryant M. Kirkland

Second Week—Carl E. Braaten

Training the Laity for Renewal—George M. Docherty

CENTER OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

THE Center of Continuing Education on the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary offers ministers and laypersons an opportunity to participate further in theological inquiry and to increase their effectiveness for ministry. Its purpose is to bring small groups to the campus, away from the pressure of the heavy daily schedule of parish or office, to work under competent guidance and to use the facilities of a great theological library. Seminars are scheduled weekly and usually extend from Monday afternoon through Thursday noon.

In order to meet the many needs of ministry, a large variety of programs are offered under twelve topical headings. These include evangelism, mission, and outreach; music, literature, and art; pastoral care and counseling; preaching and communication; management in voluntary organizations; human relations; seminars for specialized groups; Christian education; intentionality and personal leadership; special aspects of ministry; spirituality, prayer, and worship; and philosophy, theology, and Bible.

Seminars for specialized groups include dialogue seminars (e.g., Jews and Christians, clergy and lawyers), workshops for church secretaries, and multiple staff events. Seminars dealing with special aspects of ministry treat such subjects as ecumenism, ministry to youth, and ministry with and to the elderly.

In addition to the seminars and workshops, the Center of Continuing Education has twenty-eight directed reading study guides. Each contains a brief introduction and a list of ten to fifteen books arranged in order of suggested reading. The majority of the guides have been prepared by members of the Faculty. The reading guide service is conducted by mail, with books being loaned from the Center's book room. There is no charge except for the cost of return postage.

Another service of the Center of Continuing Education is to assist in making arrangements for accommodations and meals for those wishing to come for a brief period of independent reading and study, using the facilities of Speer Library.

Facilities

The Center of Continuing Education has accommodations for fifty-four residents. The physical facilities include Adams House, which contains meeting rooms and sleeping accommodations for sixteen participants, and Erdman Hall for Continuing Education, a modern air-conditioned building that will house thirty-eight persons in individual rooms. The Center is located directly across from Speer Library and a short distance from the Chapel and dining hall. Meals are available in the cafeteria during the regular academic year, with the exception of the recess periods at Christmas and during the Spring.

A brochure is available in which the program of the Center and a schedule of fees is set forth in detail. This brochure, together with registration forms and additional information concerning opportunities at the Center, may be obtained by addressing the Director of Continuing Education, 12 Library Place, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Director: D. CAMPBELL WYCKOFF.

Director of the Language School: CULLEN I K STORY.

THE SUMMER school is designed to make graduate theological education available to persons unable to attend the Seminary during the regular school year; to provide opportunities for additional work for students already enrolled in the Seminary; to enrich the institution's continuing education program; to provide a context in which intensive experimental work in theological education may be undertaken; and to incorporate such elements of summer work as the language program. The courses are open both to degree candidates and to properly qualified unclassified students.

The summer school, nine weeks in duration, is divided into three periods. Courses regularly are offered in the following subject areas:

Biblical Studies	Cullen I K Story, Adviser
Theology and Ethics	Daniel L. Migliore, Adviser
Church History	John M. Mulder, Adviser
Homiletics	Donald Macleod, Adviser
Christian Education	D. Campbell Wyckoff, Adviser
Church Administration	Richard S. Armstrong, Adviser
Pastoral Theology	James N. Lapsley, Jr., Adviser

The schedule for 1980 is as follows:

FIRST PERIOD: June 9-27, 1980

S157 Paul's Letter to the Romans in the Church. J. Christiaan Beker

S221 Reformation: Catholic, Protestant, and Radical. Edward A. Dowey, Jr.

S516 The Concept of Love. Diogenes Allen

S652 Counseling-Learning, Level I. Counseling-Learning Institutes Staff

S657 Counseling-Learning, Level II. Counseling-Learning Institutes Staff

S668 The Management of Ministry. James D. Anderson

S726 Christian Education as Faith in Search of Understanding. Freda A. Gardner

S820 Imagination and Biblical Preaching. Thomas G. Long

SECOND PERIOD: June 30-July 18, 1980

- S114 Isaiah. J.J.M. Roberts
S224 Influential Lives in American Church History. Henry Warner Bowden
S556 The Theology of Forgiveness and Reconciliation. Doris K. Donnelly
S615 Leadership for Churches in Transition. Harold L. Hunt
S701 Foundations of Christian Education Belief and Behavior. Sara Little S819 Pivotal Preachers: Past and Present. Donald Macleod

THIRD PERIOD: July 21-August 8, 1980

- S119 Theology and Narrative: Studies in the Succession Document. James A. Wharton
S240 Christianity and Non-Christian Religions. Donald K. Swearer
S570 The Theology and Practice of Prayer. E. David Willis
S667 Cultural Factors in Ministry. Colin B. Archer and Timothy O. McCartney
S727 Moral Development and Christian Education. Donald M. Joy
S821 How the New Testament Preaches. Fred B. Craddock

SPECIAL PERIOD: August 4-8, 1980 (followed by month of independent study)

- S545 Liberation Theology for North Americans. Robert McAfee Brown
S675 Theology of Pastoral Care for the 1980's: Its Planning and Practice. James G. Emerson, Jr.

Courses usually meet daily, five days a week, for two extended sessions. These sessions, confined to the morning hours, are interrupted by a recess for coffee and (on Tuesday and Thursday) for chapel. Afternoons and evenings are free for study, recreation, and special events. A typical schedule, subject to adjustment, would be:

First Session:	9:00-10:20
Recess/Chapel:	10:20-11:10
Second Session:	11:10-12:30

The courses are arranged with a view to providing coverage of a variety of areas within theological thought and practice that are particularly significant for the ministry today. For the most part, they are organized so that Th.M. candidates may develop coherent programs even though formal study must be confined to the summer months.

Candidates for the Th.M. degree in the field of Pastoral Theology, however, may take no more than half of the required work during summer sessions.

Except where S652 and S657 are selected, a student may enroll for only one course during each three-week period.

BIBLICAL LANGUAGES

Classes in Biblical Hebrew and New Testament Greek, each carrying credit for two academic courses, are offered regularly. Sections meet for approximately three hours each day, five days a week, throughout the initial eight weeks of the regular summer session. Classes are scheduled to coincide as far as possible with the hours of the summer school courses, allowing students an opportunity to attend the chapel services.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Dormitory facilities for single students will be available throughout the nine-week summer session. Students who occupy these accommodations are required to take their meals in the Campus Center.

Charges for the summer session are detailed in the chapter of this catalogue entitled "Finances."

PROGRAM FOR 1981

The dates for the 1981 summer school will be: First Period, June 8-26; Second Period, June 29-July 17; Third Period, July 20-August 7. The program in biblical languages will run from June 8 through July 31.

Programs of study are offered in the following fields: Biblical Studies, Theology and Ethics, Homiletics, Christian Education, Church Administration, Pastoral Theology, and Church History.

For further information concerning the summer session, address Professor D. Campbell Wyckoff, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. Inquiries concerning the language classes should be addressed to Professor Cullen I K Story.

RELATIONS WITH PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

REGULARLY enrolled students in the Seminary may, with the approval of the Seminary and of the University, take certain courses in the University as part of their Seminary program. These courses ordinarily must be on the upper-division level, such that they would be appropriate for inclusion in a University graduate program. Except where the demands of research otherwise require, a Seminary student normally is limited to one course in the University during any semester.

Similarly, students in the University may, with the approval of the University and of the Seminary, take courses in the Seminary as part of their University program.

Relations of academic reciprocity between the Seminary and the University permit the exercise of this privilege without additional tuition charges.

In view of the academic requirements in both institutions it is not possible for a student in the Seminary to become a candidate for a degree in the University when in candidacy for a degree in the Seminary.

The Graduate College, Princeton University

COURSES OF STUDY

The courses of study have been projected for the academic year 1980-1981 and, in a few instances, for the year 1981-1982. The program of courses is subject to such changes as circumstances may require. Any course for which there is insufficient enrollment may be cancelled by the Seminary.

THE ACADEMIC year is divided into two semesters, each approximately 15 weeks in length. Curricular offerings are of two types:

Courses—which represent, for purposes of transfer of credit, the equivalent of classes designed to meet three hours weekly for one semester;

Practicums—which represent, for purposes of transfer of credit, the equivalent of classes designed to meet one hour weekly for one semester.

A full-time program for M.Div. and M.A. (Christian education) candidates ordinarily consists of four courses and one or more practicums each semester; for Th.M. candidates, four courses each semester. The minimum load for full-time candidacy in the M.Div. and M.A. (Christian education) programs is three courses and one practicum per term.

Arrangement of Catalogue Entries

Courses and practicums are identified by codes consisting of two letters and two numbers. The letter portion of each code designates the field and department in which the offering is listed. These designations are:

Code	Field	Department
AD	Church Administration	Practical
CH	Church History	History
CS	Christianity and Society	History
DS	Ph.D. Seminar	All
EC	Ecumenics	History
ED	Christian Education	Practical
ET	Christian Ethics	Theology
EV	Evangelism	Practical
HD	History of Christian Doctrine	Theology
HR	History of Religions	History
MU	Church Music	Practical
NT	New Testament	Biblical
OT	Old Testament	Biblical
PH	Philosophy	Theology
PR	Preaching and Worship	Practical
PT	Pastoral Theology	Practical
SP	Speech and Communication	Practical
TH	Doctrinal Theology	Theology

The number portion of the code, beyond providing a unique identification for each offering, in some instances also indicates the level at which the class is taught. Numbers 00–09 designate introductory level work that does not ordinarily carry Th.M. credit; numbers 80–99 designate advanced level work often demanding extensive prerequisite knowledge. If a course or practicum is listed in more than one field, it ordinarily carries a separate code for each field.

Specific prerequisites and limitations on enrollment are set forth in field headings, in individual descriptions, and in separately available semester listings.

OLD TESTAMENT

GENERAL INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASSES

OT01 ORIENTATION TO OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES

An introduction to selected perspectives of the Old Testament through lectures, preceptorial group study, and directed reading in the Old Testament itself and in secondary literature. Not open to Th.M. or Ph.D. candidates.

First Semester, 1980-81

MESSRS. ANDERSON AND BUTLER

HEBREW SECTION. The following courses are open to M.Div. candidates who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements. With the exception of course OT07,-08, they may not normally be taken in fulfillment of the course requirements for the Th.M. or Ph.D. degree.

OT02 INTRODUCTORY BIBLICAL HEBREW

A concentrated semi-inductive study of Hebrew grammar based on a standard Hebrew text, on a careful analysis of one or more chapters of simple prose, and on additional readings selected from various portions of the Old Testament. Some attention to exegesis. An intensive course designed for those with language aptitude who plan to pursue further work in Hebrew.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. STORY

OT03,-04 INTRODUCTORY BIBLICAL HEBREW AND EXEGESIS

First semester: introduction to Hebrew grammar. Second semester: completion of Hebrew grammar and introduction to Hebrew exegesis, using selected Old Testament passages. Credit: two courses earned upon completion of the two semester sequence.

Full Year, 1980-81

MESSRS. BUTLER AND OLLENBURGER

OT07,-08 HEBREW TRANSLATION

Designed to meet for one period each week throughout two semesters. Graded sections to accommodate persons with different levels of preparation in Hebrew grammar and reading. Credit: one course earned upon completion of the second semester of work.

Both Semesters, 1980-81

DEPARTMENTAL STAFF

* On leave second semester 1980-1981.

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES
BASED ON THE ENGLISH BIBLE

Courses in this section are open to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements. In the case of an M.Div. candidate, or M.A. candidate in Christian education, course OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies, is a prerequisite for all of these classes unless that foundational course is formally waived.

LITERATURE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

OT11 THE PENTATEUCH: FORMATION OF A PEOPLE

A study of Israel's traditions about its emergence as a people under God's initiative. The prehistory, the patriarchs, exodus from Egypt, the wilderness, Sinai. Various methods of approaching these traditions, the theological perspectives represented, and the historical contexts.

First Semester, 1980-81

MS. SAKENFELD

OT12 INTRODUCTION TO THE PROPHETIC LITERATURE

The nature of Hebrew prophecy and its place in Israelite tradition. Study of selected portions of the prophetic books with attention to literary and form criticism, historical setting, and theological perspectives. Concentration on Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, and Jeremiah.

PHILOSOPHY

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASSES

The following courses are designed to provide introductory perspectives on the field and are recommended especially for students whose preparation does not include such an orientation.

PH01 PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

An introduction to philosophical reflection on religion by way of a study of the problem of evil. Classic and contemporary philosophical discussions of the problem will be examined and related to biblical and theological ideas. Attention will also be given to general issues about the relation of faith and reason.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. ADAMS

PH03 APOLOGIES FOR CHRISTIANITY

An examination of attempts to justify the truth of Christianity and to defend it from its critics, from the early second century to the present.

1982-83

MR. ALLEN

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES

The following courses are open to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements as set forth in the individual descriptions. Each M.Div. candidate must include within the distribution requirement at least one course, drawn from any division of the department, carrying the designation () at the end of the description.*

PH11 THE CONCEPT OF LOVE FROM PLATO TO THE PRESENT

A survey of the major philosophical and theological theories concerning the nature and significance of love. Such questions as the distinctiveness of Christian love, the nature of friendship, and the possibility of escape from egotism will be considered. Besides such major figures as Plato, Augustine, and Dante, the recent controversy initiated by Nygren's Agape and Eros will be of particular concern.

* On leave 1980-81.

Open to students with a course in doctrinal theology or philosophy on either the collegiate or the seminary level.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. ALLEN

PH14 THE CONCEPT OF A PERSON

An examination of the recent literature in analytic philosophy relating to the problem of responsibility (especially as posed by the social sciences), the nature of mind, and personal identity. A contrast will be made with the treatment of these matters by some existentialists. Prerequisite: one course in pastoral theology, biblical or theological anthropology, psychology, or philosophy, on either the collegiate or the seminary level.

1982-83

MR. ALLEN

PH21 THE THEOLOGY OF AUSTIN FARRER

The works of Farrer will be approached from several perspectives: first, as concerned with the philosophic, theological, and biblical problems in our claims to knowledge of God; second, as concerned with the relevance of intellectual inquiry for a life of devotion; third, as a preacher; and fourth, as a creator of a twentieth century Anglican "middle way." (*)

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. ALLEN

PH22 KIERKEGAARD AS A CHRISTIAN PHILOSOPHER

A reading of the Philosophical Fragments and the Concluding Unscientific Post-Script, with special attention to the logic of faith and the shaping of human thought and pathos.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. HOLMER

PH31 THE PHILOSOPHY OF KANT

A close study of the Critique of Pure Reason and Religion within the Limits of Reason Alone, together with other relevant Kantian works which bear on the meaning and truth of religious beliefs. Open to students who have completed two courses in philosophy or doctrinal theology, on either the collegiate or the seminary level.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. ALLEN

PH35 ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY

Examination of some of the philosophical and ethical views of Greek philosophers, poets, and dramatists which have influenced Christian theology, such as Plato, Aristotle, Homer, and Aeschylus. Consideration will be given to the question whether some Greek writers had a partial revelation of Christian truth, and to the question of the proper use of non-Christian sources for Christian theology.

1982-83

MR. ALLEN

PH41 THE THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS OF THE EXACT SCIENCES

A survey, historical and analytical, of the stillbirths of science in all major ancient cultures; the birth of science in the West, where belief in the Christian doctrine of creation was widespread; consequences for scientific methodology when philosophical criticism of that doctrine is unfolded. Limited enrollment.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. JAKI

DOCTRINAL THEOLOGY

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASS

The following course is designed for the student with a minimal background in the formal study of theology. Successful completion of this course, or demonstration of equivalent work done elsewhere, is prerequisite for further work in the field.

TH19 BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL DIMENSIONS OF HOPE

The basis and meaning of Christian hope; its Old Testament background and New Testament expressions; the significance of the resurrection of the crucified Jesus within the horizon of New Testament apocalyptic; critique of otherworldliness and privatization of Christian hope in both traditional and recent theologies; Christian hope in dialogue with the modern utopian spirit and movements of liberation. Identical with course NT42. Additional prerequisite: course NT01 or its equivalent.
First Semester, 1981-82 MESSRS. MIGLIORE AND BEKER

TH21 CHRISTIAN VISIONS OF THE SELF AND HUMANKIND

A critical study of the nature and structure of, and the sources and norms for, theological anthropology. Biblical and historical models will form the background to an analysis of contemporary Christian anthropologies. Major figures: Barth, Brunner, Reinhold and H. R. Niebuhr, Rahner, and Schillebeeckx. (*)
First Semester, 1980-81 Ms. POTTER
Second Semester, 1981-82

TH32 SCHLEIERMACHER: THEOLOGY AS GLAUBENSLEHRE

A critical analysis of the text of the Speeches and The Christian Faith, with emphasis on Schleiermacher's reformulation of the task of theology and his re-interpretation of the doctrines of God, sin, Christ, and election. Investigation of the role of experience in theology and inquiry into Schleiermacher's place in the Reformed tradition will form the background of the discussion. (*)
Second Semester, 1980-81 Ms. POTTER

TH35 THEOLOGY OF FORGIVENESS AND RECONCILIATION

Exploration of the mystery of sin, the need for conversion, the dynamics of forgiveness, and the fruits of reconciliation in a biblical and historical context, tracing the Old and New Testament calls to repentance and the various responses to those calls through Hermas, Tertullian, Origen, Cyprian, Augustine, Thomas Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wyclif, and contemporary theologies of penance. Special attention to the New Rite of Penance (1973) and to the Eucharist as a sign and sacrament of reconciliation.
First Semester, 1980-81 Ms. DONNELLY

TH36 JONATHAN EDWARDS

A study of Edwards' thought with particular attention to his attempt at a restatement of the reformed perspective in the context of his own age. The central focus will be upon his idea of faith as a "sense of the heart" and his conception of God and the world, of Christ and the Christian life, as essentially relational, dynamic, and beautiful. The contemporary usefulness of Edwards' theology. (*)
First Semester, 1980-81 MR. LEE

TH37 CONFLICT, CREATIVITY, AND CHANGE: THEOLOGY IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

A survey of the major Protestant and Roman Catholic theological developments in the nineteenth century. Lectures on the eighteenth century background, the significance of Kant and Hegel for theology, the rise of biblical criticism and hermeneutics. Readings in Schleiermacher, Feuerbach, Ritschl, Harnack, Strauss, Herrmann, Troeltsch, Maurice, Newman, and Bushnell.
First Semester, 1981-82 Ms. POTTER

ET46 MINISTRIES OF JUSTICE

Student projects and classroom analysis focus on social justice ministries in which students are participating, to the end of developing the capacity to assess the adequacy and applicability of theories of justice and the justice and efficacy of forms of action and association dealing with social issues. Prerequisite: course ET45 or permission of the instructor.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MS. LIVEZEY

ET48 PIETY, POLITICS, AND POWER

An examination of the relationship between religion and politics in America since the American revolution. Individual political figures will be studied to discern how their expressions of religious beliefs interacted with their attitudes toward political life and with their exercise of power. Various movements, such as abolitionism, feminism, prohibitionism, the social gospel, and the civil rights movement, will be studied to explore the role of the churches and religious values in affecting social change. Special attention will be given to "civil religion" and its changing definition and role in American society and politics. Identical with course CH65.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. MULDER

ET51 WOMEN'S TWO ROLES

An examination of certain aspects of the issue of sexism related to working and would-be-working women (e.g., separation of home and work, inequality and segregation at work, stereotyping in the marketplace, women "in charge," women on welfare, job reentry, the loss of "free time"). Historical survey and empirical/experiential accounts of these topics; analysis of ethical and theological issues raised; attention to implications for the ministry of the churches.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MS. LIVEZEY

ET55 THE CHURCH IN MISSION AND UNITY: THE PAST AND FUTURE OF THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT

Interpretative historical survey of the ecumenical movement as represented primarily by the World Council of Churches. The basic problems of the movement today as problems of its growth, as expressed in (a) the integration of Faith and Order, Life and Work, and World Mission; (b) the transformation of ecumenism from a lay subversive into an official ecclesiastical movement; (c) world-wide membership maximizing theological and ethical pluralism; (d) the effort at spiritual penetration of the modern world of science, technology, social revolution, and secularization; and (e) dialogue with other religious faiths and secular ideologies. Ecumenical-biblical exploration of the unchanging core and changing aspects, and a discussion of the future of the ecumenical movement. Identical with course EC45.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. THOMAS

ET56 CHRISTIAN SOCIAL ETHICS IN ASIAN PERSPECTIVE

The effort of the church in the Asian context to develop a relevant and meaningful Christian social witness in encounter with the religious and social realities of changing Asia and their ideological interpretations. Parishes in New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania are chosen for the quality of their Christian education programs and the ability of local leaders to interpret their programs.

By Special Arrangement

MS. GARDNER

PROGRAM IN SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH, MEASUREMENT, AND EVALUATION. This program, which draws upon the facilities of Princeton Theological Seminary and the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey, is designed to prepare Christian educators and others to use established methods of research and measurement in the solution of problems in Christian education and social research in religion. It is flexible enough to meet the needs of those who desire a general acquaintance with the methods of research and evaluation sufficient to read and understand relevant research literature, and of those who wish to conduct research and evaluation studies and to build the instruments to be used in such studies. In addition to the other catalogued courses in Christian Education, Theology and Personality, and Christianity and Society, the following offerings are available for qualified applicants.

ED71 INTERPRETING SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

An introductory course which emphasizes the place of statistical and logical concepts in the solution of problems in Christian education and social research in religion. The emphasis is on understanding and evaluating the research of others rather than on skills in original research. Basic concepts include sampling, statistical significance, tests, survey methods, and problem analysis.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. J. CAMPBELL

ED72 DESIGNING SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Methods of collecting, organizing, and interpreting evidence relevant to the solution of educational problems and problems in social research in religion. Principles of measurement and techniques of evaluation, including methods of test development and methods of developing other evaluative instruments, analyzing educational and religious objectives, preparing a test or research plan, writing and editing test items, and analysis of research data. The emphasis is on the development of skill in applying techniques to problems in Christian education and social research in religion. Prerequisite: course ED71 or its equivalent.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. MURPHY

ED73 SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS

A more advanced course in social and educational statistics, building on the statistics dealt with in ED71. May be taken concurrently with ED72 as a tutorial or tool subject. Registration by special arrangement with the instructors.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MESSRS. J. CAMPBELL AND MURPHY

ED74 INTERNSHIP IN SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH,
MEASUREMENT, AND EVALUATION

Available to one or two selected students each year. The applicant must have completed the courses indicated above and must present evidence of being prepared to profit from experience at the Educational Testing Service. A specific project, a plan of study, or arrangements to participate in some on-going project at the Educational Testing Service ordinarily constitutes such evidence. It is expected that each applicant will have an opportunity to discuss the plan with one or more members of the Educational Testing Service staff prior to its formal presentation. At the time of acceptance, the intern is assigned to an Educational Testing Service staff member who serves as adviser during the period of the internship. The adviser is available for consultation, but the intern is expected to take the initiative in planning and pursuing the studies, calling on the adviser for assistance in drawing upon the resources available at the institution in relation to specific problems as they arise. Ordinarily, an internship involves full-time work and study at the Educational Testing Service for a period of six weeks during the summer or an equivalent amount of time over a semester during the academic year. Persons interested in academic credit for the internship should consult with Mr. Wyckoff in advance.

ADVANCED CLASSES

The following courses are designed for students engaged in graduate programs and others with extensive background in the field.

Preaching on assigned texts. Prerequisites: course PR01 and practicum SP01. M.Div. candidates are expected to complete this practicum by the end of the Middle year.

Either Semester, 1980-81

MESSRS. MACLEOD, MASSA,

Either Semester, 1981-82

J. R. NICHOLS, AND DEPARTMENTAL STAFF

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES

Unless otherwise noted in the individual descriptions, courses and practicums in this category are open to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements.

PR11 ADVANCED PREACHING PRACTICUM

Advanced preaching practicum for Seniors, featuring types of homiletical methods and pastoral, biblical, and ethical-theological emphases. Prerequisite: practicum PR02.

Either Semester, 1980-81

DEPARTMENTAL STAFF

PR15,-16 PREACHING SEMINAR

Designed primarily for persons concentrating in preaching but open to a limited number of others, this class will feature such studies as: taped sermons by each student within the context of worship in his or her field education assignment (or other current situation), along with reaction reports from laypersons attending; class sermons delivered before invited laypersons; interviews with leading preachers whose published sermons have been read and heard; and videotape transcripts for evaluation of sermon delivery. Credit: one course each semester. Prerequisite: practicum PR02.

Full year, 1980-81

MR. MACLEOD AND DEPARTMENTAL STAFF

PR21 PARISH PREACHING

Preaching within the context of a contemporary parish, types and handling of resources, planning a year's pulpit work, addressing the individual Christian and the church, and relating one's study program to the entire program of congregational life. Prerequisite: course PR01.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. KIRKLAND

PR23 PASTORAL PREACHING

Exploration of preaching in context of the pastoral dimension of ministry, with emphasis on the role of preaching in pastoral care; dealing with human problems and life situations in sermons; and understanding emotional processes in listeners as they influence communication. Student sermons will be presented. Prerequisite: course PR01.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. J. R. NICHOLS

PR26 PREACHING WITH IMAGINATION

An exploration of ways to approach and interpret Scripture creatively. Traditional and contemporary homiletical methods will be studied, using lecture and evaluation of class and model sermons.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. YOUNG

PR27 PLANNING A YEAR'S PREACHING

A study of methods and resources employed in planning one's sermons for the calendar year. Lectures and discussions will include series of sermons, messages for Christian festivals, national and seasonal observances, and occasional services. Prerequisite: course PR01.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. MACLEOD

PR28 SIX PREACHERS: THEIR METHOD AND MESSAGE IN THE CONTEXT OF THEIR TIMES

A study of the lives and preaching of Thomas Chalmers, F. W. Robertson, Joseph Parker, J. H. Newman, Phillips Brooks, and H. E. Fosdick in the context of the religious, social, and world conditions of their times.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. MACLEOD

PR41 THEOLOGY OF PREACHING

A study of significant theories of preaching from Augustine to the present, including an analysis of the necessary components of the preaching situation, as they are described in representative treatises on preaching. The student will be expected to formulate a theological understanding of preaching which will incorporate the form, content, and purpose of preaching. Lectures, readings, preceptorials, term paper. Prerequisite: course PR01.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. MASSA

PR48 LANGUAGE AS INTERPRETATION AND COMMUNICATION

Study of the sermon as a linguistic tool for the interpretation and communication of the Christian gospel. Rhetorical criticism as the necessary complement to the critical-historical method in theology. Analysis of the written sermon as a basis for oral communication and as a bridge between thought and event in preaching. Theory and practice developed through a combination of lectures and workshop. Prerequisite: course PR01.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. MASSA

PR51 THE DYNAMICS OF COMMUNICATION AND PREACHING

Analysis, through case studies, of preaching and preaching objectives in terms of human communication dynamics; integration of theological claims for preaching and experiential processes of hearing and responding to sermons, with emphasis on the roles of conflict, uncertainty, and creativity in preaching. Prerequisite: practicum PR02.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. J. R. NICHOLS

PR53 THE PREACHER'S USE OF THE BIBLE

Exploration of different strategies and methods for using the Bible in preaching, with emphasis on theological and human dynamics of the movement from text to sermon. Questions of biblical authority in preaching, the use of biblical story and narrative in sermons, and the place of religious experience in interpretation and communication will be discussed. Students will prepare analyses of their own and others' sermons. Prerequisite: course PR01.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. J. R. NICHOLS

PR61 THEOLOGY AND COMMUNICATION THEORY

Communication processes and dynamics in theological perspective. How different approaches to the study of communicative acts have been used in the church and evaluated theologically. Overall emphasis of the course is on exploring how and why aspects of human communication are theologically significant; specific subjects to be discussed include persuasion, theology of the Word, belief-value formation, relational communication, parabolic messages, personal narrative, and a structural approach to message analysis. Prerequisite: practicum PR02.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. J. R. NICHOLS

PR63 INTERPRETATION AND COMMUNICATION IN PREACHING

Interdisciplinary exploration of the relationship of hermeneutical principles and communication dynamics involved in preaching from different kinds of biblical texts. Students will present sermons as case studies of the way messages are constructed on the basis of these types of texts, in the light of theoretical material presented in lectures. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and PR01, and practicum PR02, or their transfer equivalents. Enrollment limited; priority given to Th.M. candidates and Seniors. Identical with course NT48.

1981-82

MESSRS. BEKER AND J. R. NICHOLS

WORSHIP

PR70 REFORMED WORSHIP

To present a viable theology of worship and to assist students to become effective leaders of the various acts of worship in the pastorate. Lectures and discussions will include a brief review of the history of worship in the Reformed tradition, basic principles of the theology and psychology of worship, the pattern of the Christian year, classic orders of worship, composition of prayers, the form and conduct of funeral services, the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper, and the meaning and character of new forms of services.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. MACLEOD

PR72 WORSHIP PRACTICUM

A workshop designed to explore liturgical resources and to structure worship experiences based on historical and creative models. The practicum will meet two hours each week: one hour for the planning and structuring of services that may be used in the daily chapel; the other hour for the evaluation of services conducted. Prerequisite: one course in worship.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. DUBA

PR73 LITURGICAL THEOLOGY

A study of the biblical and historical roots of the worship of the church, with particular emphasis upon the theological implications of selected liturgical forms and the liturgical implications of selected theological positions.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. DUBA

PR74 CONTEMPORARY LITURGIES

A comparative study of contemporary liturgical documents both denominational and non-denominational, with emphasis upon the theology and form of these service materials. Recent Presbyterian, Lutheran, Episcopal, Methodist, and Roman liturgies will be examined.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. DUBA

PR76 THE ARTS IN THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH

Studies in the fields of aesthetics, the arts, dramatic theory, theology, and education, focusing upon the church; projects in the arts as used in education and in worship. Identical with course SP61. Prerequisite: practicum SP11.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MESSRS. DUBA AND JACKS

PH.D. SEMINARS

Where enrollment warrants, the Department of Practical Theology makes available to Ph.D. candidates in Theology and Communication in Preaching, in Christian Education, and in Pastoral Theology one or two seminars each semester over a two-year period. These seminars are described in a section beginning on page 115 of this catalogue.

PASTORAL THEOLOGY

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASS

The following offering, although not prerequisite to all subsequent work in the field, is designed to provide an orientation to relevant theory and practice.

PT01 INTRODUCTION TO PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

This course provides an introduction to the shepherding, helping, and healing functions of the religious worker, ordained or not. The interrelationship of theory (theological and psychological) and practice is emphasized throughout. Each student prepares reports on his or her own pastoral visitations, counseling, or contacts made in field experience. These reports are discussed analytically in class and in small groups, to the end of improved professional self-understanding as well as methods of helping. Enrollment limited to sixty-three students who are participating in some form of pastoral work such as field education churches, hospitals, and prisons.

Either Semester, 1980-81

MS. BROWN AND STAFF

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES

PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING. The following offerings are open, unless otherwise noted, to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements.

PT11 CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN PASTORAL CARE

Some issues pervasive of all aspects and dimensions of pastoral care are considered, including the questions of specialization, the relationship between pastoral care and secular modes of helping, and the effect on pastoral care of shifting definitions of human need, such as are embodied in the phenomena of cultural change, the rise of the encounter group movement, and the increasing diversity of psychotherapeutic approaches. Lectures, discussion, semester paper. Limited to students who have had an introductory course in pastoral care.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. LAPSLEY

PT15 FRONTIERS OF PASTORAL CARE II

Theological and psychological consideration of some of the significant areas of pastoral care. Focus is on such areas as similarities and differences in pastoral care done by men and women; pastoral care and the single pastor; laypersons' involved in pastoral care; child abuse; problems of middle-aged persons; drug abuse; divorce. Lectures, role plays, preceptorial discussion of verbatim and literature analyses, theological-pastoral position paper. Limited to students who have had an introductory course in clinical pastoral education, and who are engaged in some pastoral work or field education.

First Semester, 1980-81

Ms. BROWN

PT18 PASTORAL CARE OF THE AGING

The intention of the course is to assist the participants to understand older people as a group with its own set of problems and perspectives, in order to come to a responsible ministry among them. Attention will be given to the problem of aging in a modern society, the special task included in becoming old (in the framework of the life cycle), and the outer and inner "world" of older people. The structure of the ministry of pastoral care at the present time, especially among older people.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. FABER

PT21 CONFLICT DYNAMICS IN PASTORAL MINISTRY

An examination of the ways and areas in which conflict arises in pastoral ministry. Theories of conflict and models of its utilization or resolution will be presented and criticized with a view to the student's developing a facility in constructing professionally competent and personally viable models for conflict confrontation. Lectures, role-playing, and case studies are used as teaching-learning techniques. Course designed for persons with parochial administrative responsibilities; others with the permission of the instructor. Identical with course AD47.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. HANSON

PT22 MODELS OF DECISION-MAKING

An examination of the confrontation of optionality and chance in pastoral ministry. Techniques of decision-making in problem solving and planning will be presented and criticized with a view to the student's developing a facility in constructing professionally competent and personally viable models for ministerial use. Lectures, role-playing, and case studies are used as teaching-learning techniques. Course designed for persons with parochial administrative responsibilities; others with the permission of the instructor. Identical with course AD48.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. HANSON

PT23 PASTORAL MARRIAGE AND FAMILY COUNSELING

Uniqueness and limitations of marriage and family counseling conducted by ministers will be examined in terms of theological, psychological, and social dynamics of such counseling; contracting and re-contracting; closing and referring. Readings in both the general and pastoral literature; role-playing and case discussions of written reports of the students' pastoral marriage and family counseling. Limited to students who have had an introductory course in pastoral care or one quarter of clinical pastoral education, a basic course in systematic theology, and whose pastoral work or field education enables them to engage in some pastoral marriage or family counseling or to have contact with couples or families. Juniors admitted only with special permission of the instructor.

Second Semester, 1980-81

Ms. BROWN

PT24 STYLES OF PASTORAL LEADERSHIP

Designed to equip participants to devise and utilize their own competent professional model of pastoral administrative leadership, responsible to theological and behavioral factors. Traditional theories of organization and leadership are presented and criticized. The church as a voluntary organization with internal and external concerns, and ministry as leadership within that context. Course designed for persons with parochial administrative responsibilities; others with the permission of the instructor. Identical with course AD44.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. HANSON

PT25 MINISTERING TO CHANGE IN THE CHURCH

Continuity and change investigated as values for personality and voluntary systems. The change agent as a style of ministry. Tension in the church between tradition and innovation; law and gospel; justification and sanctification explored and analyzed within the parameters of theological and behavioral studies. Course designed for persons with parochial administrative responsibilities; others with the permission of the instructor. Identical with course AD45.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. HANSON

PT26 THEORY AND PRACTICE OF PASTORAL COUNSELING WITH INDIVIDUALS

Short term pastoral counseling of individuals. Basic principles of counseling involving problems typically encountered in the parish will be stressed, including the special factors involved in the parish context. Students will be expected to present case studies and verbatim records of pastoral counseling (or pre-counseling). Prerequisite: an introductory course in pastoral care, or one quarter of clinical pastoral education. Enrollment limited to thirty students; preference given to Th.M. candidates.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. LAPSLEY

PT27 THE MEANING OF DEATH

A multidisciplinary exploration of the meaning of death, drawing upon psychological, sociological, and theological studies, and giving special attention to issues involved in ministry to the dying and bereaved. Prerequisites: Introduction to Pastoral Care and Counseling and a basic course in theology. Enrollment limited to students concurrently engaged in supervised field experience. Identical with course TH48.

First Semester, 1980-81

MESSRS. LAPSLEY AND MIGLIORE

PT28 ETHICAL AND PASTORAL PERSPECTIVES ON HUMAN SEXUALITY

An examination of issues and problems involving human sexuality as these are encountered in ministry. The role of sexuality in human life and development; cultural, social, and individual dimensions within a framework of theology. Current field education desirable. Prerequisite, in addition to TH01: an introductory course in pastoral care. Identical with course ET27.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. LAPSLEY AND MS. LIVEZEY

PT29 PASTORAL CARE AND CRISIS SITUATIONS

The process of integrating theory and practice of the conduct of pastoral care and counseling in various crisis situations such as sexuality, isolation, violence, and death within the lifestyles of singleness, marriage, and family. Students participate in role plays and discussions of their own pastoral contacts, visitations, and counseling in crisis situations. Limited to students who have had an introductory course in pastoral care or one quarter of clinical pastoral education, one basic course in systematic theology, and whose pastoral work gives opportunity to be in contact with persons in these various situations and lifestyles.

First Semester, 1981-82

MS. BROWN

CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION. The following clinical courses have limited enrollments. Priority is given to students for whom such work is required, and to Seniors concentrating in Pastoral Theology. Thereafter, priority is given to students who are closest to graduation. Enrollment should be undertaken through the regular registration procedures, and notices of cancellation, where necessary, will be sent by a departmental representative at the earliest possible date.

PT33 CLINICAL INTRODUCTION TO PASTORAL CARE (MENTAL HOSPITAL)

Conducted at the Philadelphia State Hospital. An opportunity for the student to integrate the theory and practice of pastoral care; evaluation of the student's pastoral functioning with emotionally disturbed patients. Recognition of the dynamics of mental illness; appropriate use of the resources of the Christian faith in the patient's movement to health. Group seminars will focus on personal and professional self-awareness and the ability to establish interpersonal relationships as dynamic factors in the professional practice of ministry. Assigned readings in the field; verbatim reports of patient contacts and presentation of one such report to the seminar group.

Second Semester, 1980-81

STAFF AND CHAPLAIN WYCOFF

PT39 CLINICAL INTRODUCTION TO PASTORAL CARE (GENERAL HOSPITAL)

Conducted at the Somerset Medical Center or the Burlington County Memorial Hospital under the supervision of the staff chaplain, with seminars by medical staff and allied health personnel. The course provides an opportunity to do pastoral work with persons in crises and to relate the experiences and meanings of suffering and death to theology. Requirements: oral and written evaluations, peer review, and reading assignments from pastoral theology, medical, and allied literature.

Either Semester, 1980-81

STAFF AND CHAPLAIN LANTZ OR CHAPLAIN KOCH

PT41,-42 PART TIME CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION

Supervised clinical pastoral education on a part-time basis during the academic year under the guidance of chaplain-supervisors approved by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Designed for students who wish to pursue clinical pastoral education but who are not free during the summer. Students will receive one course of academic credit and one-half quarter credit with the Association for spending thirteen hours a week in the clinical setting; concurrent enrollment in one course facilitating integration of clinical with theoretical concerns is required. Time to be arranged with the supervisor in consultation with participating students. Arrangements for an interview with the supervising chaplain should be made through the Seminary's clinical coordinator. In addition to the Seminary's regular tuition charges, a special fee is paid by the participant to the clinical center in which the work is conducted. Limited enrollment; limited to Middlers, Seniors, and Th.M. candidates.

By Special Arrangement

SUPERVISORS

PT47 CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION (SUMMER)

Supervised clinical pastoral courses in various types of hospitals and other health and welfare institutions, under the guidance of chaplain-supervisors approved by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Arrangements for these courses must be made in advance with the instructor and the Registrar. Open to all students; credit earned for this course not applicable to the Th.M. degree in Practical Theology.

THEOLOGY AND PERSONALITY. The following courses are open, unless otherwise noted, to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements.

PT51 THE PSYCHOLOGICAL UNDERSTANDING OF RELIGION

A critical historical review of the scholarly attempts, over the past century, to understand certain phenomena of religious experience from psychological points of view. Proceeding then from the insights of modern dynamic psychology and psychiatry, the course examines the potential contributions of psychology to understanding Christian faith and life in a constructive as well as an analytical sense. It seeks to lay groundwork for "the psychology of religion" as both a theological and a psychological discipline.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. LAPSLEY

PT54 SALVATION AND HEALTH

A critical analysis of the concepts of salvation and health as they refer to our potential wholeness from different perspectives, and of the issues involved in relating and distinguishing these concepts. Healing as both individual process and social phenomenon will be examined in religious and secular manifestations, with special attention devoted to healing by non-physical means: "spiritual" healing, pastoral care, and psychotherapy. Lectures, papers, discussion.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. LAPSLEY

ADVANCED CLASSES

The following courses are designed primarily for students engaged in graduate programs and, in some instances, students pursuing Senior concentrations in Pastoral Theology.

PT71 SENIOR PASTORAL THEOLOGY SEMINAR

Normally required of and limited to students concentrating in pastoral theology. Students' interests presented through papers and discussion. Over-arching questions on models and methods will guide work and aim at integration of concepts.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. LAPSLEY AND STAFF

PT73,-74 CLINICAL DIMENSIONS OF PASTORAL RELATIONSHIPS

An intensive two-semester orientation to clinical pastoral training. During the first semester, students work with emotionally disturbed patients at the Philadelphia State Hospital; during the second, with persons in the crisis of physical illness at the Presbyterian-University of Pennsylvania Medical Center. Open to, and required of, Th.M. candidates in Pastoral Theology lacking previous clinical pastoral education. Credit: one course each semester.

Full Year, 1980-81

CHAPLAINS WYCOFF AND DEARMENT

PT76 SEMINAR IN THEOLOGY AND PSYCHODYNAMICS

Development of a methodological approach to the problem of relating psychological understandings of persons to a theological frame of reference. Cases from both the psychological and religious literature will be critically examined in the light of methods which have been proposed. Each student will present a paper in which he or she sets forth his or her own constructive method in dealing with a single case, preferably drawn from his or her pastoral experience. Restricted to graduate students, except by permission of the professor. Course PT16 ordinarily is a prerequisite to this seminar.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. LAPSLEY

PH.D. SEMINARS

Where enrollment warrants, the Department of Practical Theology makes available to Ph.D. candidates in Pastoral Theology, in Christian Education, and in Theology and Communication in Preaching, one or two seminars each semester over a two-year period. These seminars are described in a section beginning on page 115 of this catalogue.

SPEECH AND COMMUNICATION

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASSES

The following practicums are designed for entering students in the M.Div. program, and the M.A. program in Christian education, although they also are open to other students who may desire such work.

SP01 FUNDAMENTALS OF EXPRESSION: EXPERIMENTATION WITH SOUND AND SENSE IN SPEECH

Practicum. Voice production and articulation as tools for effective communication; principles of phrasing and emphasis in interpretative speech. Special attention to correction of individual speech faults. Audio and video recordings; private conferences. Prescribed for M.Div. and M.A. candidates during the first year of study. Assignment to class sections is made in consultation with a member of the staff after an initial recording has been evaluated.

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. BEENERS AND STAFF

First Semester, 1981-82

First Semester, 1980-81

MR. WHITELOCK

SP76 MEDIA PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES

Workshop in the photographic, recording, and editing skills used in preparing original media materials. Film, synchronized slide/sound, and videotape formats will be explored in the preparation of student projects. Prerequisite: practical SP75 or its equivalent. A practicum.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. WHITELOCK

PH.D. SEMINARS

The following seminars are designed for Ph.D. candidates in the fields of Christian Education, Theology and Communication in Preaching, and Pastoral Theology, and provide seminar credit in any of these areas of specialization. Enrollment is limited strictly to Ph.D. candidates. Ph.D. candidates in departments other than Practical Theology may enroll upon permission of the principal instructor in the seminar.

DS80 THEOLOGY AND COMMUNICATION

Advanced study of human communication dynamics in theological perspective. Theological values and claims will be interpreted in relation to behavior in communication environments. Communication in well-defined contexts (preaching, worship, education, administration, counseling) will be analyzed as pastoral intervention in reality-structuring experiences. The focus of the seminar is functional and dynamic, but not technological.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. J. R. NICHOLS

DS83 METHODOLOGY AND PROJECT SEMINAR IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

A seminar utilizing the perspectival approach and exploring ways of relating the findings and methods of cognate secular disciplines with theology. Most of the work proceeds by critical discussion of project presentations by students.

Both Semesters, 1980-81

STAFF

DS88 RESEARCH IN RELATION TO PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

Different methods in correlating disciplines in the context of practical theology will be reviewed, looking to the development of a constructive position. Discussion, seminar paper.

Second Semester, 1981-82

MR. LAPSLEY

DS92 THEOLOGY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Advanced consideration of developmental psychology. Such major aspects of human development as morality, identity, language, and cognition are examined from interdisciplinary perspectives relevant to Christian education, preaching, and pastoral theology.

Second Semester, 1980-81

MR. LODER

DS93 RESEARCH IN FAITH DEVELOPMENT

Analysis and interpretation of current trends in faith development research. Structuralist and psychodynamic contributions; constructive syntheses in various theological traditions and implications for practical theology.

First Semester, 1981-82

MR. LODER

DS99 INTERDEPARTMENTAL DISSERTATION PROPOSAL SEMINAR

A seminar designed for Ph.D. candidates in their second year of residence. Drafts of dissertation proposals will be presented by students and subjected to critical and constructive discussion across departmental lines by Faculty and peers, with the aim of facilitating the development of proposals for submission to each candidate's own residence committee. Attention will be given to general problems shared at this stage by candidates in all fields, notably those of achieving precision and clarity in both the conception and the presentation of the proposal. The chairperson of the candidate's residence committee will be invited to participate in the discussion of each proposal.

MR. WEST AND OTHERS

RELIGION AND SOCIETY PROGRAM

Professors: J. F. ARMSTRONG, J. H. NICHOLS, C. G. WEST, G. WINTER.

Assistant Professor: C. A. RYERSON.

Instructor: L. G. LIVEZEY.

RELIGION AND SOCIETY aims to develop theologically reflective participation in the worldwide struggle for justice and peace. Work is directed both as primary theological inquiry and as creative contribution to human action in the transformation of economic and political realities. The program attempts to hold thought and action together in pedagogy, communal dialogue of faculty and students, and in fashioning opportunities for participation in religious, associational, and academic settings.

At all academic levels, but particularly in connection with Ph.D. studies, four major dimensions of theological and critical inquiry shape the work of the field:

1. Critical understanding of methods and issues in social and political inquiry.
2. Theological interpretation of the place and claim of the religious heritage in personal and societal transformation.
3. Exploration of the source and significance of love and justice in historical praxis.
4. Comprehension of the character, limits, and strategic place of institutional and cultural transformation in the struggle for justice and peace.

Faculty and students are expected to integrate these dimensions of historical praxis in their own work in ways appropriate to their investigations.

Candidates for the M.Div., Th.M., and Ph.D. degrees may pursue concentrations in this area under the supervision of the Committee on Religion and Society. Courses appropriate to the concerns of Religion and Society, as listed below, are offered by several of the academic divisions of the Seminary. Field education also may contribute to such studies on the M.Div. level.

SPECIAL COURSES

In cases of demonstrated need, a qualified student may make application through an instructor to enroll for a special course in a subject falling within that instructor's field of specialization. Such a course may be given, under the provisions outlined in the following paragraphs and with the approval of the Curriculum Committee, provided that coverage of the same material cannot reasonably be arranged as part of a regular course during the remainder of the student's period of residence. Courses so arranged must be reported to the Office of the Registrar in accordance with the regulations governing the selection of catalogued electives. Special courses made available by the Seminary are of two types:

Tutorials—classes normally arranged to meet the needs of one student, but on occasion more than one, and involving extensive reading of relevant literature, periodic conferences with the instructor, and a concluding examination or project.

Research Courses—classes arranged on an individual basis to meet the needs of qualified students, and involving independent research on a defined topic and the preparation of a substantial paper.

In the interest of equity, a candidate for the M.Div. or the M.A. degree ordinarily may not carry more than one special course during any given semester. An M.Div. candidate is limited to four such courses during his or her total program; a candidate for the M.A. degree, three special courses. The privilege of enrolling for these courses normally is extended only to persons in candidacy for a degree at the Seminary.

Since special courses are offered over and above an instructor's normal academic load, members of the Faculty ordinarily may not give more than two such courses during any semester without the approval of the Academic Dean. Special courses during the summer months are discouraged. Where a tutorial is offered to more than two or three students, approval of the department and the Curriculum Committee is required.

Senior theses are not considered to be research courses and continue to be encouraged in appropriate cases.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOPS in the Doctor of Ministry program are designed to provide the context for a critical assessment of the candidate's patterns of ministerial practice. Discussions, involving twelve candidates and two members of the Faculty, are based upon prepared reports dealing with four focal areas or aspects of ministry. These areas, which also provide the organizing principle for the action-reflection examinations, are (a) theological and ethical aspects of ministry, (b) caring and restorative aspects of ministry, (c) communicative and educative aspects of ministry, and (d) organizational and administrative aspects of ministry.

Commuter workshops, held for two consecutive fall semesters, meet for approximately four hours each week. Intensive workshops, designed for candidates who live beyond commuting distance, meet daily during two periods each three weeks in length. The organization of these sessions, through the summer of 1980, is as follows:

SUMMER 1980

Workshop Q: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: H. A. Koops and J. R. Nichols

Workshop R: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: J. F. Armstrong and G. W. Hanson

Workshop S: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: K. D. Sakenfeld and D. W. Waanders

FIELD EDUCATION

Director: CONRAD H. MASSA.

Assistant Director: KAREN A. BROSTROM-O'BRIEN

M. A. Director: FRED A. GARDNER.

Consultants: LOIS G. CREIGHTON, R. L. PETERSEN.

THE FIELD EDUCATION program is an integral part of the theological curriculum. Students under the supervision of pastors and specialists work at a variety of assignments in particular churches and institutions in the interest of developing (1) a habit of working in the context of disciplined theological reflection; (2) a growing understanding of the church and its ministry; (3) a life-style congruent with the gospel; (4) sound ways of relating to persons of all sorts; and (5) competencies which are professional in the sense of including mastery of skills with knowledge of the theoretical bases of each.

Assignments are available in churches and institutions of every type in an area that includes two huge metropolitan centers, smaller cities and towns, and rural neighborhoods. A Teaching Church Program offers a high level of supervision for a hundred students each year under the

PROFESSOR C. H. MASSA
Director of Field Education
Dean of the Seminary guidance of pastors who participate in monthly seminars. A Trenton Community Program provides a year of work in a troubled city for a small number of upper class students. Prison ministries and other specialized activities enlist a substantial group of participants.

Summer assignments are available in churches and church projects, in national parks, in industry (with seminars), and in clinical training.

M.Div. Requirements

In addition to the other requirements, an approved program of field education, which in the judgment of the field office meets the needs of the individual student, is required for graduation.

A minimum program shall include both of the following. (a) A year of satisfactory work in a church under approved supervision. This requirement may be met in two semesters of weekends, ordinarily in a Teaching Church, or in an internship year. (b) A period of satisfactory work in a field of service appropriate to the student's particular purposes and in accord with the goals, functions, and principles of field education. This requirement may be met in two semesters of weekends, one summer, or an internship year. (An internship year may be used to fulfill either requirement a or b but not both.)

Any variation from this program must be with the counsel and approval of the Director of Field Education, who shall decide whether the student's work meets the graduation requirements.

Early in the Junior year every M.Div. candidate shall submit to the Director of Field Education an autobiographical sketch for presentation to churches and supervisors. Reports on field education activity are required on January 15 and May 15; summer reports on August 31. All remunerative work is to be reported to the field office. If this involves over twenty hours a week, the Director of Field Education may recommend to the Faculty a reduction in hours or a four-year program.

M.A. Requirements

In addition to the other requirements for the M.A. degree in Christian education, a program of field education is required for graduation. The program shall include the following. (a) An initial field education experience, ordinarily undertaken in the first year, in a church under approved supervision. (b) Either in the summer between the first and second years or during the second year, work in a field of service appropriate to the student's particular purposes and involving the student in supervised leadership.

Internships

The intern program in field education permits an M.Div. candidate who has completed two years of theological education to devote a year to full time in-service training for the ministry, before completing his or her academic course. Internship positions include student pastorates, assistantships, teaching posts, and other responsibilities. Some internship programs involve work abroad. Intern training programs must be approved by the Director of Field Education and are under his supervision, in cooperation with the employing organization. The intern is considered a regular student in the Seminary during his or her program.

Graduate Internships

Programs of in-service and clinical training are available to M.Div. and other graduates who wish to continue practical training for the ministry under supervision. This program is available for a variety of types of ministry and has proved to be a helpful way for younger graduates to begin their vocational work. The Director of Field Education will aid and counsel students in arranging such programs.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

Robert E. Speer Library

Librarian:	CHARLES WILLARD.
Assistant Librarian for
Technical Services:	JAMES S. IRVINE.
Cataloguers:	MARGARET WHITELOCK, JULIE E. DAWSON.
Order Librarian:	KATHERINE SKREBUTENAS.
Reference Librarian:	BARBARA MACHAFFIE.
Circulation Librarian:	GWENDA LITTLE.

THE LIBRARY building, opened in 1957 and named in honor of Robert E. Speer, has space for approximately 400,000 volumes and 350 readers. In addition to its main reading room, which seats about 115 persons, there are 44 carrel tables in the stack area, unassigned and open to all readers. Other facilities include a graduate study room where advanced students may keep their books, several small seminar rooms, and a smoking lounge. Ten private study rooms are reserved for the use of visiting scholars.

The Collection

Speer Library offers substantial resources for theological study and research at all levels. It now contains over 345,000 catalogued books, pamphlets, and microfilms, including valuable portions of the libraries of Dr. Ashbel Green, Professor John Breckinridge, Dr. William Buell Sprague, Mr. Samuel Agnew, Professor J. Addison Alexander, Dr. John M. Krebs, Dr. Alexander Balloch Grosart, Professor William Henry Green, Professor Samuel Miller, Professor Benjamin B. Warfield, and Dr. Louis F. Benson. It currently receives over a thousand journals, annual reports of church bodies and learned societies, bulletins, transactions, and periodically issued indices, abstracts, and bibliographies.

While popular works are not neglected, a major objective of the library is to acquire comprehensively the basic works of western and, in translation, eastern religious traditions. Primary sources are represented both by original, early editions or reprints and by modern critical editions. The strength of the library is maintained by the acquisition, on a standing-order basis, of all major sets, new critical editions, and scholarly monograph series currently published in the main fields of theological study.

Several special collections should be mentioned. The Louis F. Benson Collection of Hymnology, numbering over ten thousand volumes, provides superior resources for the study of all fields of American and foreign hymnology. The Grosart Library of Puritan and Nonconformist Theology, acquired in 1885 and added to regularly, now contains over five thousand volumes. The Sprague Collection is an unusually large collection of early American theological pamphlets. Over two thousand volumes and three thousand pamphlets dealing with the controversy regarding the proper form of baptism are in the Agnew Baptist Collection. The Alumni Alcove, supported substantially by the donations of authors, preserves their published works as a testimony to the influential position of Seminary graduates and Faculty in theological and general literature.

Support

The library is supported by an annual appropriation and by income from restricted endowment funds totaling $1,146,371 from Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, Mr. John C. Green, the Reverend Samuel M. Hamill, Mrs. R. L. Kennedy, Mary Cheves Dulles, Professor Theodore W. Hunt, Dr. Louis F. Benson, Miss Mabel Gillespie, Mrs. Helen M. T. Locke, Mrs. John F. B. Carruthers, Mr. William L. Ulyat, Mrs. Elizabeth Parke Ballantine, Dr. Katherine Finney and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Finney, Mr. John P. Orendorff, Mr. John G. Buchanan, Miss Margaret I. Vaughan, Mrs. Alice M. Newberry, as well as other alumni and friends.

Additional Facilities

Photocopies of library material in the public domain and, within the provisions of the principle of fair use, of copyrighted material may be made on coin- or key-operated IBM Copier II machines. The staff also can make arrangements for microfilms of library books and photographs of plates.

Graduates of the Seminary are entitled to borrow books by mail. Further information about this service may be obtained from the library.

In accordance with the terms of an agreement between the Seminary and the University, students of the Seminary are granted free use of the University library, subject to its rules.

Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room

Faculty Supervisors: D. CAMPBELL WYCKOFF, FRED A. GARDNER.

Director: RONALD H. CRAM.

The Reading Room, located on the first floor of the Christian Education Building, makes available a wide range of literature in Christian education and resources in audio-visual aids. Although intentionally limited in general reference materials, it contains specialized reference works in education and Christian education. The collection includes current sets of eighteen standard curricula, more than 4,000 volumes of special contemporary interest, and approximately 100 journals that are received on a regular basis. Other resources include tapes, filmstrips, records, pictures, posters, simulation games, and multi-media titles. Access is primarily through a card catalogue. The Reading Room also publishes lists of newly acquired books, catalogues of the audio-visual collection, and lists of journals received by subscription.

The following equipment is available for minimal rental charges: three tape recorders, two cassette tape recorders, a carousel slide projector, a film strip projector, two record players, three film-disk hand viewers, and a large portable screen.

Hours for the Reading Room are announced at the beginning of each semester.

Speech Department

Director: W. J. BEENERS.

Director of

Instructional Media: WAYNE R. WHITELOCK.

The Speech Department, located on the third floor of Stuart Hall, maintains a collection of approximately 5,000 tape recordings of lectures, sermons, and other campus events, preserving in their original form the presentations of many significant theological figures.

A catalogue of recorded materials is available, and descriptive listings from major film distributors are kept on file. Recorded materials are available for private listening without charge; copies of many selections may be requested at minimal cost.

For instructional purposes, the technical staff provides consultation and services to the faculty and student body. Audio-visual materials and equipment for class presentations are available on a reservation basis.

When the Seminary is in session, the departmental offices are open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.—4:30 p.m.

ADDITIONAL DEPARTMENTS AND SERVICES

THE SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

PURSUANT to the action of the Presbyterian General Assembly of 1941, which recommended that colleges of Christian education belonging to the Presbyterian Church should become related to seminaries or colleges, negotiations were entered into between the Trustees of Princeton Theological Seminary and the Trustees of Tennent College of Christian Education in Philadelphia. Following these negotiations the Trustees of Tennent College decided to close the latter institution and to make over its assets in trust to Princeton Theological Seminary. The Seminary, on its part, agreed to carry forward the work of Tennent College upon a graduate level, and to perpetuate the name of Tennent upon the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary and in the Seminary's annual catalogue. The School of Christian Education was inaugurated in September 1944, when a group of young women with college degrees was admitted for the first year of study. In 1974, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton entered into an agreement with the Seminary whereby the program of the School of Christian Education is used for the professional training of religious educators.

PROFESSOR F. A. GARDNER
Christian Education

The two year course embraces basic studies in biblical literature, theology, church history, ecumenics, and education, in addition to special cultural and technical studies designed to give students the most complete preparation possible for teaching the Christian religion in church or secular schools. The degree of Master of Arts (M.A.) is conferred upon those who successfully complete the course. In exceptional cases students will be admitted for a shorter period who do not intend to take the full course for a degree, but who desire to equip themselves more fully for some task related to Christian education in which they have been engaged, or desire to engage, at home or abroad.

All inquiries relating to the School of Christian Education should be directed to the Office of Admissions, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

The Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room

The Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room is located in the Education Building. Many of its general reference volumes were gifts to the School of Christian Education from the library of Tennent College of Christian Education. The Reigner Reading Room provides additional study space near the education classrooms and the married student apartments in North and South Halls, and makes available to students and surrounding churches a wide range of literature in Christian education and resources in audio-visual aids. Each year, Mr. Charles G. Reigner, a Baltimore publisher, makes a generous gift to the Seminary for the Reigner Reading Room in order to keep this important collection up to date by acquiring the new materials constantly appearing in this field. Consult page 125 for additional information concerning the resources of this facility.

THE SECRETARY OF THE SEMINARY

Alumni Relations

The Secretary of the Seminary maintains contact with 8,500 alumni, 900 of whom reside outside the United States. The Alumni News, which goes to alumni in all fifty states and in seventy-six other countries, reports class news, marriages, births, and deaths. Special articles highlight events on the campus and outstanding newsworthy activities of our graduates around the world.

The alumni body consists of all persons who matriculated at Princeton Theological Seminary, both those who received degrees and those who pursued special studies or did not complete a full program. All alumni are included in the Princeton Seminary Alumni Association. They receive the quarterly Alumni News, the Princeton Seminary Bulletin, the annual calendar for the Center of Continuing Education, the annual Alumni Roll Call, and other special mailings. There are no membership dues. The Alumni Association holds its annual meeting on Alumni Day, the day before commencement.

The officers of the Association serve a two-year term. For 1979-1981 they are as follows: President, Mark R. Thompson, 44B, of Scranton, Pennsylvania; Vice President, Arthur D. Webster, Jr., 69B, of Wheeling, West Virginia; Secretary, Paul S. Stavrakos, 69M, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Treasurer, Elmer G. Homrighausen, 24B, of Princeton, New Jersey.

Alumni chapters have been formally organized in many cities in the United States. Meetings of these chapters, and of alumni in several other cities where chapters are in process of formation, provide an occasion for fellowship and dialogue between graduates and members of the Faculty and administration.

Placement

The Secretary of the Seminary interviews all Seniors as they prepare for graduation. He assists all who need help in placement in parish ministry, chaplaincies, and other church-related occupations, and counsels with pastors and committees regarding candidates for positions as pastors, associate and assistant pastors, and directors of Christian education.

THEOLOGICAL BOOK AGENCY

The Theological Book Agency is located in the basement of Stuart Hall. In addition to providing the textbooks for all Seminary courses, the store maintains a wide selection of about 7,000 titles representing all fields of theological scholarship. The agency is under the supervision of a Faculty committee which determines general operating policy.

Discounts are available on all direct purchases from the agency, and alumni of the Seminary may order books by mail at reduced prices. Foreign importing and special order services also are available. The store is open from 1:30 to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday when classes are in session; special hours are posted for vacations and for reading and examination periods.

b. All subsequent transcripts, each	1.00
c. Dossiers, each	3.00

⁵ Summer session charges are payable in advance.

⁶ This is the basic Internship tuition charge. Additional or higher charges are made for certain specialized Internships. Complete information may be secured from the Director of Field Education.

⁷ Full-time students include: M.Div. candidates and M.A. candidates in Christian education who are enrolled for at least three courses and one practicum during the current semester; Th.M. candidates and M.A. candidates in theological studies enrolled for four semester courses; Ph.D. candidates in residence and certain others engaged full time in dissertation preparation; resident Special students. Others are considered part-time. Current fees are not charged to Auditors, or (with the exception of the facilities fee) to Non-Matriculated students or D.Min. candidates.

* Charge subject to adjustment in the event medical premium is revised.

A small orientation fee also is charged to all new degree candidates, and to transfer students, payable at the beginning of the initial semester.

ROOM AND BOARD DURING REGULAR YEAR

Annual Charges for Single Students

Room and board$1,740.00

A description of facilities is found on page 146. Dormitories are open for regular occupancy several days preceding the beginning of classes through the day of commencement. Dormitory occupancy will not be available during the summer months except for regularly enrolled summer students.

Annual Charges for Married Students Occupying Seminary Facilities without Cooking Privileges

Room and board$1,750 to $1,970

These charges cover room rental for the couple and board for the enrolled student of the family. The spouse has the privilege of cafeteria facilities, either on a per meal basis or by registration for board for the semester.

Charges for Married Students Occupying Seminary Facilities with Cooking Privileges

North and South Halls$97 to $157.25 (monthly)

Wilson Apartments$158 to $205 (monthly)

A description of facilities is found on page 146.

Board Service

All quoted rates that include board privileges are subject to change.

Board payment covers three meals a day (two meals on Sunday) during periods when the Seminary is in session. Services under the plan begin with breakfast on Monday, September 22, 1980, and conclude with the noon meal on Friday, May 22, 1981. These services are suspended during the following periods of recess:

Thanksgiving: closed all day November 27.

Christmas Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, December 19, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, January 5.

Inter-Semester Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, January 23, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, February 2.

Spring Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, March 20, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, March 30.

During certain of the periods when regular boarding services are suspended, the cafeteria may be open on a cash basis. In general, however, students are expected to make their own arrangements for meals when the Seminary is not in session. Fire regulations do not permit cooking in the dormitories.

Students who are absent from the Seminary at least two full days each weekend on field education assignments certified by the Office of Field Education will receive a credit of $9.90 for each weekend during which the board plan is in effect.

Students seeking to be excused for medical reasons from board in the dining hall must provide documentation in the form of a letter from a medical doctor citing the medical problem and diet prescribed. The letter should be sent to the Business Office.

Students receiving grant assistance from the Seminary are required to live in Seminary accommodations, if available, unless excused by the Financial Aid Officer.

ROOM AND BOARD DURING SUMMER SESSION

Facilities for single students are available throughout the 1981 summer session. Charges for room and board will be announced. As a general aid in planning, room and board costs for the 1980 summer session were (per three week period) $192 for air conditioned accommodations and $177 for other accommodations. Linen service is not included in these charges. Board provides three meals a day, Monday through Friday. There is no board service on weekends.

PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS

Except in the case of D.Min. candidates, charges for tuition, fees, board, and room are due and payable on or before the first day of each semester. Rental for Stockton Street and Charlotte Rachel Wilson accommodations is payable monthly, due in advance on the first business day of each month.

A handling charge of $5.00 will be assessed for any check payment returned for insufficient funds.

The special arrangement with Princeton University for the use of McCosh Infirmary and Firestone Library is possible through responsible attention to bills incurred by Seminary students. In order to assure continued cooperation, the Seminary will settle such accounts not paid within 60 days and will apply such charges to the student's account with the Seminary.

Payment Plans

In the case of charges payable at the beginning of the semester, the student may elect either (a) to make payment in full before the first class day of the semester, in which instance no service fees will be assessed, or (b) to pay the charges in four equalized monthly installments. During the first semester these installments are due on the first business day of October, November, December, and January; during the second semester, on the first business day of February, March, April, and May. Where the deferred payment option (b) is selected, there will be added to the total semester charges a service fee of $5.00. The payment plan for D.Min. students is outlined on page 130.

An additional service charge at a periodic rate of 1% per month (which represents an annual rate of 12%) will be assessed on all unpaid accounts.

Where monthly rentals are overdue, a service charge of $5.00 will be assessed on the fifteenth day of each month.

Final acceptance of a student's registration for a new semester shall be contingent upon the Registrar's receipt of certification from the Business Office that all accounts for earlier semesters have been satisfied and that payment in full or a deferred payment agreement for new charges has been received. Priority for enrollment in classes with limited registration may be lost if accounts from a previous semester remain delinquent. No degree may be awarded by the Seminary or transcript issued unless the student has met all financial obligations to the institution.

REFUNDS

If (a) a student withdraws from the Seminary while a semester is in progress, having secured the approval of the President or his designated representative for the withdrawal, or (b) a part-time student reduces his or her academic load after the first class day of a semester, having notified the Registrar, charges for the classes discontinued, and for room and board before withdrawal, will be assessed as follows:

1. Tuition:

During first 11 class days of semester	20%
During next 14 class days of semester	50%
Thereafter	100%

2. Room and Board [weekly rates, subject to change]

$60.00

No portion of any fee is refunded. If the withdrawal is without the approval of the President, the student is liable for the full semester's tuition.

If the student who withdraws from the Seminary has received a financial aid award from the institution, consideration should be given to the special provision under "Grants" on page 136.

If a student withdraws from the Summer Session after classes have begun, he or she shall be responsible for the full tuition charges. If withdrawal occurs before the beginning of classes, charge is made for one-half of regular tuition. If he or she has been living in one of the campus dormitories, room and board will be pro-rated. Should the withdrawal be occasioned by confirmed illness that prevents continuation in the program, further adjustments may be made in the assessment of tuition.

FINANCING A SEMINARY PROGRAM

Basic charges for a single student enrolled in a full-time degree program, including tuition, comprehensive fee, and the cost of room and board, will total approximately $4,190 annually. A single student will find that his or her other expenses during the academic year, exclusive of holiday expenditures and transportation, will be about $815.

Married students will find that living costs, in addition to basic tuition and comprehensive fee, vary according to their housing arrangements, food purchases, and personal habits. Students with families should contact the Director of Housing regarding living accommodations.

Seminary financial assistance is granted on the basis of demonstrated need. To assist the Seminary in establishing the individual degree of need, students are asked to submit, on a form provided by the Seminary, an itemized statement of their financial situation, including a budget showing available resources and anticipated expenses. The Director of Student Financial Aid will consult with each such applicant to insure that the factors of self-support, careful utilization of savings, parental assistance, Seminary grants, and educational loans are kept in proper balance. The Seminary will seek to assist each student to establish a financial program that protects him or her from an undue burden of remunerative employment, anxiety about finances, or excessive indebtedness.

Self-Support

It is assumed that a Seminary student will make every effort toward self-support consonant with the demands of his or her program of studies. If it is found that resources will be insufficient for the period of theological study, such financial needs will be a necessary consideration in the development of summer plans. Students will find that positions of service, secured through the Office of Field Education during both the summer and the academic year as part of the educational program, will also provide remuneration.

Other sources of income include employment in the Seminary dining hall, library, book agency, offices, and other on-campus positions. In addition, the Office of Student Financial Aid assists students in locating regular or occasional work in the Princeton area, and assists student spouses in securing employment.

Grants

Applicants for financial aid are considered for grant assistance, regardless of nationality or denominational affiliation. Seminary grants, within the limits of available funds, vary in amount depending upon the student's overall financial situation. Grants are awarded without obligation of repayment, subject to the student's continued attendance for the full period of the award. Should a student withdraw prior to the end of a semester, grant assistance will be subject to reduction based upon the period in attendance.

Loan Funds

United Presbyterian students who are registered with or under the care of a presbytery for a church vocation, or who are candidates preparing for service in one of the boards or agencies of the denomination, may apply for loan assistance from the Vocation Agency of The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. In some instances those already engaged in a church vocation with The United Presbyterian Church also may apply. Application is made through the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Other denominations, including the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the United Methodist Church, also make funds available to Princeton Seminary students preparing to enter ministerial or other professional service in the denomination.

A limited number of National Direct Student Loans are also available to students eligible under federal guidelines. In addition, the Office of Student Financial Aid is the certifying office for State Guaranteed Student Loan applications. Local banks and savings and loan associations normally make such funds available to students.

All such loan funds carry interest charges of from 3% to 7%. Repayment, and the assessment of interest, do not begin until the student has completed full-time study.

Additional Information

More detailed written information from the Office of Student Financial Aid and Employment concerning aid programs administered by the Seminary is available upon request. This information includes: appropriate application forms and procedures; criteria for selecting recipients, for determining award amounts and limits, and for initial and continuing eligibility; payment arrangements, current direct costs, and estimates of other typical costs; refund policy; aid recipient rights and responsibilities.

Also available are selected listings of outside sources of grant and loan assistance, as well as information about non-Seminary employment opportunities in the area.

In addition, as mandated by federal regulations, summaries of student retention at the Seminary and placement and remuneration surveys of graduates are available upon request.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY CANDIDATES

Princeton Doctoral Fellowships

Up to three awards may be made annually to first year doctoral students on the basis of demonstrated academic merit and promise of scholarly accomplishment in a chosen field of advanced study. The maximum stipend for a fellow is $4,250.

The George S. Green Fellowship for Doctoral Study in Old Testament

One fellowship for doctoral work in Old Testament may be awarded for the first year of study to that Senior in the Master of Divinity program at the Seminary, or that candidate in the Master of Theology program at the Seminary, who is recommended for outstanding academic achievement and scholarly promise by the professors in Old Testament. The stipend for the fellowship is $4,250.

Doctoral Teaching Fellowships

Up to twelve Doctoral Teaching Fellowships are awarded annually. The remuneration of a fellowship is $2,410 and includes payment of the candidate's tuition charges or continuation fee, and the balance in cash. In addition, a scholarship award of $1,525 for a candidate enrolled for classes on a full time basis, or $25 for a candidate not so enrolled, is granted. For the remuneration the holder undertakes to assist one or more members of the Faculty for a total of 450 hours for the academic year. Fellowships are ordinarily, but not exclusively, awarded to applicants who have completed the first year of doctoral study.

Doctoral Study Grants

Grant awards are available to doctoral candidates who demonstrate financial need. These awards are reserved for students who do not qualify for the fellowships described above.

Applicants and candidates in all programs should address inquiries concerning financial assistance to:

Director of Student Financial Aid
Princeton Theological Seminary

SENIOR CLASS FELLOWSHIPS

Fellowships have been established in the Seminary for the pursuit of advanced study in theology. In 1879 Mr. George S. Green of Trenton, N.J., founded a fellowship for the encouragement of advanced study in Old Testament Literature. In 1889 the alumni of the Seminary contributed a fund for a fellowship in New Testament studies. In 1891 Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, of New York City, established the Archibald Robertson Scholarship. In 1900 Professor William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., by bequest provided a fund for fellowship purposes. In 1905 by bequest of Mrs. Mary W. Winthrop, of New York City, the Gelston-Winthrop Memorial Fund was created and from this fund an annual appropriation was made by the Trustees for the maintenance of three fellowships. In 1943 a fellowship was established on the Samuel Robinson Foundation. The fellowships were reorganized in 1945 by the Trustees of the Seminary and several fellowships established upon these foundations with an honorarium of $1,000 each. Fellowships are available in Old Testament, New Testament, the Department of History, the Department of Theology, the Department of Practical Theology, and the Program in Religion and Society.

Fellowship Regulations

The fellowships are awarded in accordance with the following rules:

1. In order to become a candidate for a fellowship, a student must be a member of the Senior class who has been in residence in the Seminary as a member of the Middle class. By April 15, the candidate must give notice of his or her intention to compete for a fellowship to the Director of Professional Studies and receive the Director's approval.
2. The candidate must present a thesis in a specified field, which shall also be his or her area of Senior studies, and pass such examination as may be required. A copy of the thesis must be delivered at the Office of Professional Studies on or before May 1. The award of the fellowship will be made upon the merit of the thesis and of the examination of the candidate. Theses of unusual merit will be preserved in the library. The fellowship award will be made by the Faculty, upon recommendation of the department concerned, and will be announced on or about May 15.

3. A student who submits a thesis in competition for a fellowship, whether or not he or she is successful in the competition, will receive regular academic credit for the work, provided it meets the usual requirements for a thesis in that Senior studies area.

4. A fellow shall pursue studies principally in the subject in which the fellowship has been awarded, conducting the work either in this Seminary or in some other approved graduate institution. He or she shall submit a program to the Registrar for approval and subsequently shall make to him periodic reports of progress. A fellow shall study for a full academic year, which year shall be the next ensuing after appointment. Permission to postpone study requires Seminary approval. Such request shall be submitted to the Registrar.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN OLD TESTAMENT

Established on the George S. Green Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in Old Testament will be awarded to that Senior student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in this field and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN NEW TESTAMENT

Established on the Alumni Foundation, the Archibald Robertson Scholarship and the William Henry Green Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in New Testament will be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in this field and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

The Senior Fellowship in History will be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

The Senior Fellowship in Theology will be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

Established on the Samuel Robinson Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in Practical Theology will be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN RELIGION AND SOCIETY

The Senior Fellowship in Religion and Society will be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in this program area and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

The Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Ministry

Through the generosity of an anonymous friend there was established for the year 1980-1981 a fellowship for overseas study, to be awarded to an immediate graduate of the Seminary who is a United Presbyterian candidate and who is dedicated to the parish ministry. Field education performance and academic excellence, including performance on the ordination examinations of the United Presbyterian Church, are considered by the Faculty in making the award.

FELLOWSHIPS AT JERUSALEM AND ATHENS

Inasmuch as Princeton Theological Seminary makes an annual contribution to the American School of Oriental Studies at Jerusalem, and to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, qualified students can be recommended in competition for annual fellowships at each of these schools. For further details students who are interested should consult with Mr. Armstrong regarding studies in Jerusalem, or with Mr. Metzger regarding studies at Athens. By virtue of an association with the Hebrew Union College Biblical and Archaeological School in Jerusalem, it also is possible for qualified students to be recommended for research fellowships in Israel. Details may be secured from Mr. Armstrong.

PRIZES AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Year by year a considerable number of prizes are offered for special work or attainments. The recipients of such prizes must have completed creditably all the studies of the year.

Except where an essay is required, the inclusion of a prize in the descriptive paragraphs below does not constitute an assurance of its availability during the year 1980-1981. Essays submitted for prizes must be signed with an assumed name, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the author, and presented at the Office of Professional Studies on or before May 1.

GRADUATE STUDENTS, SENIORS, MIDDLERS, JUNIORS

The Samuel Robinson Foundation Prizes

By the generosity and vision of a Presbyterian layman, Mr. Samuel Robinson, a considerable sum of money has been donated to Princeton Seminary to stimulate interest in the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Believing, upon the ground of his personal experience, that there is no single statement of Christian doctrine more admirably suited than the Westminster Shorter Catechism to challenge the thought of young people upon the basic truths of the Christian religion, the donor has founded a number of prizes and a fellowship.

For the year 1980-1981 up to thirty-three prizes of $150.00 each will be awarded, for which Juniors, Middlers, Seniors, and Graduate students may try, provided they have not previously received a Samuel Robinson Prize.

The basis of awarding of prizes shall be both an oral examination on the text and a written examination on the text and its interpretation.

A student may receive a prize on the Robinson Foundation only once during his or her Seminary course.

The David Hugh Jones Prize

Through the generosity of former members of the Princeton Seminary Choir, this prize is offered periodically to that student who, in the judgment of the Faculty, has contributed most to the musical life of the Seminary campus.

The Robert Goodlin Prize

Through the generosity of family and friends, this prize has been established in memory of Robert Paul Goodlin, a member of the Senior class of 1961. The award will be made to a worthy student who has displayed a particular interest in clinical training.

The Warwick Foundation Scholarship Grant

This award is given through the Warwick Foundation by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Gemmill in honor of Mr. Gemmill's father, Benjamin McKee Gemmill, D.D., a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary in 1892. The sum of $3,000 is made available to assist a student who requires financial aid.

SENIOR PRIZES

The Jagow Prize in Homiletics and Speech

Through the generosity of Mr. Charles H. Jagow there was established in 1977 the Jagow Family Fund. A portion of the income from this endowment provides annually a prize of $100, to be awarded to that student who during the year has made the greatest progress or displayed outstanding achievement in homiletics or speech.

The Scribner Prizes in New Testament

Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons offer one hundred dollars' worth of their publications to that member of the graduating class, every other year, who shall prepare the best essay on an assigned subject in New Testament literature or exegesis. The second and third in merit will each receive twenty dollars' worth of their publications.

The theme for 1981-1982 is: Exegesis of Mark 12:1-12, the Parable of the Vineyard and the Tenants.

The Greir-Davies Prizes in Preaching

In 1923 the Synod of Pennsylvania (Welsh), by a gift to the Trustees of the Seminary, established the Hugh Davies Fund in memory of the Rev. Hugh Davies (1831-1910), an honored minister and historian of the Calvinistic-Methodist Church in Pennsylvania. The interest derived from the fund and supplemented by a portion of the interest from the foundation established by Elizabeth J. Greir in 1944, will constitute a prize of seventy-five dollars to be awarded to that member of the Senior class whose preaching and other forms of oral communication throughout the year shall be accounted the best in thought, composition, and delivery. The second in merit will receive fifty dollars.

The John Alan Swink Prize in Preaching

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan S. Swink began this prize in memory of their son, John Alan Swink, a member of the Senior class of 1952. The prize was subsequently endowed by John's sister, Mrs. William Sieber, of Wayne, Pennsylvania, and by her husband. One hundred dollars may be given to a member of the Senior class who has shown most improvement in preaching during his or her Seminary course.

The Charles J. Reller Abiding Memorial Fund Award

The Neshaminy-Warwick Presbyterian Church of Hartsville, Pennsylvania, has established this award in memory of Charles J. Reller, a devoted member of that congregation. The award will be made to the student who, during the final year of study on any Seminary program, is judged to have shown during that year "the greatest active Christian concern for his fellow man."

The John T. Galloway Prize in Expository Preaching

The John T. Galloway prize is awarded, upon recommendation of the professors of Homiletics, to a member of the Senior class who throughout his or her years as a Master of Divinity candidate has indicated a special interest and competence in courses in expository preaching, and who in the preaching class has delivered an unusually good expository sermon.

The John W. Meister Award

Through the generosity of friends, there was established in 1976 an award in memory of the Rev. John William Meister, a distinguished churchman and alumnus in the class of 1941, who at the time of his death was Director of the Council of Theological Seminaries of The United Presbyterian Church. Annually, a prize of $100 is awarded to a member of the graduating class who in the judgment of the Faculty has displayed particular concern and promise for the pastoral ministry of the church.

The Samuel Wilson Blizzard Memorial Award

Through the generosity of former students, colleagues, and friends, there was established in 1976 an award in memory of the Rev. Samuel Wilson Blizzard, Jr., an influential sociologist and alumnus in the class of 1939, who at the time of his death was Maxwell M. Upson Professor of Christianity and Society, Emeritus, in the Seminary. Annually, a prize of $25 is awarded to a member of the graduating class who in the judgment of the Faculty has displayed particular concern and aptitude for the social ministry of the church.

The Friar Club Alumni Award

Through the generosity of Friar Club alumni, there was established in 1977 the Friar Club Alumni Award, to be given to a member of the Senior class who has contributed significantly to the life of the Seminary community.

The Edler Garnet Hawkins Memorial Award for Scholastic Excellence

Through the generosity of friends and former parishioners, an award has been established in memory of the Reverend Dr. Edler G. Hawkins, Moderator of the One Hundred and Seventy-Sixth General Assembly, who at the time of his death was Professor of Practical Theology and Coordinator of Black Studies in the Seminary. The recipient of this award shall be that Afro-American member of the Senior class who has achieved the highest cumulative grade point average within the range of the first and second fifths of the previous year's graduating class. The grant, in an amount of at least $300, shall take the form of a credit at the Theological Book Agency.

SENIOR AND MIDDLE PRIZES

The Robert L. Maitland Prizes in New Testament Exegesis and English Bible

In 1890 Mr. Alexander Maitland, of New York, founded the Robert L. Maitland prizes in memory of his father. One hundred dollars will be given for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament. The passage for 1980-1981 is: An Exegesis of Romans 3:21-26.

One hundred dollars will be given for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The topic for 1980-1981 is: The Transfiguration in the Synoptic Gospels.

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology

By a gift of Mrs. Archibald Alexander Hodge a prize in Biblical Theology has been established in memory of her father, Dr. John Finley McLaren. The sum of one hundred dollars will be awarded for the best essay on an assigned subject in Biblical Theology.

The subject for 1980-1981 is: The Role of Israel in Paul's Thought.

MIDDLE PRIZES

The Benjamin Stanton Prize in Old Testament

In 1890 the Rev. Horace C. Stanton, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary, founded the Benjamin Stanton prize in memory of his father. One hundred dollars may be awarded to a member of the Middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of Old Testament without submitting a thesis.

The E. L. Wailes Memorial Prize in New Testament

By a gift from the estate of the Rev. George Handy Wailes, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary in the class of 1897 and a visiting professor in the institution for several years, there was established in 1968 the E. L. Wailes Memorial Prize. Fifty dollars may be awarded to a member of the Middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of New Testament without submitting a thesis.

The Henry Snyder Gehman Award in Old Testament

Through the generosity of the Rev. Dr. Robert E. Hansen, an alumnus of the Seminary in the class of 1943, there has been established the Henry Snyder Gehman Award in Old Testament, honoring a distinguished biblical scholar and member of this Faculty who began service in the Seminary in 1930 and who in 1958 retired as the William Henry Green Professor of Old Testament Literature. Annually a prize is awarded to a member of the Middle class for excellence in the field of Old Testament without submitting a thesis.

The Archibald Alexander Hodge Prize in Systematic Theology

By a gift of Mrs. A. A. Hodge there was established in 1907 a prize in Systematic Theology in memory of her husband, the Rev. Archibald Alexander Hodge, D.D., LL.D. Fifty dollars is awarded periodically to a member of the Middler class on the basis of excellence in the field of Systematic Theology without submitting a thesis.

The Mary Long Greir Prizes in Speech and Homiletics

In 1944 Elizabeth J. Greir left funds to establish a Mary Long Greir prize or prizes in connection with the work of students "for excellence in oratory, in delivery of sermons, addresses or declamations." Periodically a first prize of fifty dollars and a second prize of twenty-five dollars are awarded to a member of the Middle class on the basis of effectiveness in preaching and the public reading of the Scriptures.

The William Tennent Scholarship

The Neshaminy-Warwick Church of Hartsville, Pennsylvania, has established a scholarship of $500 to be awarded to a member of the coming Senior class who has shown special interest and ability in the teaching aspects of the work of the church.

The Edward Howell Roberts Scholarship in Preaching

Through the generosity of Mr. George M. Dunlap, Jr., the Marple Presbyterian Church of Broomall, Pennsylvania, has established an annual scholarship in memory of Edward Howell Roberts who at the time of his death in 1954 was Dean of Princeton Seminary. The award will be made by the Faculty to a member of the Middle class who shows promise in the field of preaching and who needs financial aid in order to continue study in this area.

The Raymond Irving Lindquist Fellowship in the Parish Ministry

This fellowship, established in honor of the Reverend Dr. Raymond Irving Lindquist, an alumnus of Princeton Theological Seminary in the class of 1933, a Trustee of the Seminary, and minister emeritus of the Hollywood First Presbyterian Church, will be given to a rising Senior each year who has been judged outstanding in his or her gifts and preparation for the parish ministry and is planning a career as a pastor. The fellowship will be awarded by the Faculty on the recommendation of the Director of Field Education.

JUNIOR PRIZES

The Mary Long Greir Prizes in Speech

In 1944 Elizabeth J. Greir left funds to establish a Mary Long Greir prize or prizes in connection with the work of students "for excellence in oratory, in delivery of sermons, addresses or declamations." Periodically a first prize of fifty dollars and a second prize of twenty-five dollars are awarded to a member of the Junior class on the basis of effectiveness in the public reading of the Scriptures and in other forms of oral communication.

HOUSING FACILITIES

Single Students

Rooms in the Seminary dormitories are furnished with bedstead, mattress, pillows, bureau, chairs, table, mirror, and bookcase. Bed linen and blankets for a single bed, and towels, must be provided by the student.

A single student on a regular program is expected to room in one of the Seminary dormitories. Students who occupy Seminary accommodations are required to be enrolled for a full-time program throughout the period of residence and to take their meals in the Campus Center.

A drawing for choice of rooms in the dormitories is held in May, and rooms are assigned to new students upon arrival. A limited number of single rooms ordinarily are available for incoming students with special needs.

Although dormitory accommodations are intended primarily for students enrolled for full academic loads, provision is made on an available space basis for persons registered for part-time studies.

Candidates for the Ph.D. degree may occupy Seminary accommodations for a three-year period only. Candidates for the Th.M. degree ordinarily may occupy Seminary facilities for one year only, during which time they are expected to pursue a full-time program.

Married Students

A large number of unfurnished apartments for married students with or without children are available in the Charlotte Rachel Wilson complex. Each unit contains a living room, dining area, kitchen, bath, and either one or two bedrooms. This group of apartments is located approximately four miles from the Seminary. A smaller number of unfurnished apartments of varying sizes, some with provision for couples with children, are available on the Stockton Street campus. Seminary apartments are rented to students under a lease arrangement. The period of the lease is from September 1 to August 31, except that students graduating in June will be released from the lease as of June 30.

In addition, a section of one of the Seminary dormitories has been reserved for married couples without children. The suites consist of two or three rooms, and are provided with the essentials of furniture including bed and mattress. Couples must furnish their own bedding, and the student is required to take his or her meals in the Campus Center.

Although an increasing number of married students will occupy Seminary apartments, some families will find it desirable or necessary to secure accommodations in Princeton or the surrounding area. The Seminary maintains an Office of Housing to assist couples in finding adequate accommodations, although final responsibility for obtaining such accommodations rests with the student. All inquiries concerning married student housing, whether Seminary or off-campus, should be addressed to:

Director of Housing
Princeton Theological Seminary
Princeton, New Jersey 08540

CARE OF HEALTH

Students of the Seminary who require medical attention are cared for at the Princeton University Infirmary, which is used jointly with University students on the following terms:

1. Every student who becomes ill or suffers an accident should report at once to the infirmary for examination by a staff physician. If the student is taken ill in his or her room and is unable to go to the infirmary, a physician at the infirmary should be notified immediately. The infirmary telephone (452-3139) is covered 24 hours a day, except during the Christmas and summer holidays.
2. If a student is confined to the infirmary less than one week, no charge is made for board. If confinement is for one week or more, charges will be assessed at current University rates from the time of admission to the infirmary. In the latter case, an adjustment will be made on the Seminary board bill if he or she holds a board and room contract with the Seminary.
3. During the summer before registration, an entering student must submit a health history and a record of medical examination completed by his or her family or school physician. A standard report form for this purpose is made available by the infirmary through the Office of Admissions of the Seminary.

The infirmary staff includes two psychiatrists and a clinical psychologist who may be consulted by students desiring their assistance.

Participation in the health program of the University infirmary is made possible by an 1893 gift of $3,750, by the Reverend William Lewis Moore of New York City and Mrs. Matthew Baird of Philadelphia, which established an endowment in the infirmary for the benefit of the Seminary in memory of William Lewis Moore, Jr. In 1923 Mr. E. Francis Hyde of New York City contributed $25,000 on behalf of the Seminary toward the construction of a new building. The Seminary, by an annual contribution toward the maintenance of the infirmary, assumes its share of the cost of operation.

To supplement the excellent facilities and program of the McCosh Infirmary, Princeton Seminary has initiated a Medical Benefits Plan, designed to the Seminary's own specifications and needs. This plan has two aims: first, to cover most or all of the usual cost of hospitalization; and second, to provide financial assistance in those cases where other medical expenses rise above the "deductible" out of pocket sum of $50.00. Participation in the Plan is mandatory for all full-time students of the Seminary (see the definition in the note at the foot of page 131), and available for dependents of such students. The comprehensive fee coverage includes services of McCosh Infirmary and the Medical Benefits Plan for the student. For an additional charge, coverage of the Plan is extended to dependents, according to a table of rates available from the Business Office upon request.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

ALL REGULARLY admitted students with the exception of doctoral candidates are considered members of the student body of Princeton Theological Seminary for the purpose of conducting the affairs of student government. A Student Council of seven elected members, and a Planning Board with membership drawn from each of the student organizations, establish the budget and direct the programs of the student government.

The primary purposes of the student government, as set forth in its constitution, are: (1) to coordinate student activities and concerns, (2) to represent the students in contacts with the Faculty and administration of the Seminary, and (3) to facilitate student involvement in non-Seminary organizations and interests.

KOINONIA

Koinonia is a society composed of students who are working toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Meetings are held from time to time during the academic year, at which diverse themes of theological interest are discussed.

SPECIAL LECTURESHIPS

Three lectureships have been endowed which, through the publication of the lectures as delivered or in expanded form, have been productive of a considerable body of theological and missionary literature.

The Stone Lectureship

In 1871, Levi P. Stone, Esq., of Orange, N.J., a Director and also a Trustee of the Seminary, created the foundation for a lectureship which, in accordance with his direction, has been applied annually since 1883 to the payment of a lecturer, chosen by the Faculty of the Seminary, who delivers a course of lectures upon some topic kindred to theological studies. In the years 1903 and 1906 the endowment was increased through the generosity of Mr. Stone's sisters.

The Students' Lectureship on Missions

The Students' Course of Lectures on Foreign Missions had its inception in the minds of the undergraduates of the Seminary, and its endowment was secured largely by their efforts, liberally supported by the Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D. The lectureship was established in 1893. It is designed to provide for an annual course of lectures on some topic connected with Christian missions which shall be of practical importance for those looking forward to missionary service abroad, and at the same time introduce the whole Seminary community to the world mission of the church.

The Warfield Lectureship

In the will of Dr. Benjamin B. Warfield, former Professor of Systematic Theology in the Seminary, a fund was created to establish a lectureship in memory of Mrs. Warfield, to be called the Annie Kinkead Warfield Lectureship. In accordance with the terms of the trust, the lecturer on this foundation shall be approved by the Faculty of the Seminary, upon the nomination of the Charles Hodge Professor of Systematic Theology. Each lecturer shall belong to the Reformed tradition in theology, and "the subject of the lectures shall in all cases be some doctrine or doctrines of the Reformed System of Doctrine."

PUBLICATIONS

THE PRINCETON SEMINARY BULLETIN

THIS PUBLICATION, issued three times a year, contains the copy of addresses delivered to the Seminary community by visiting lecturers, papers of a specialized or scholarly nature by members of the Faculty, sermons, book reviews, and special program notices. THE BULLETIN is distributed free of charge among all alumni and is sent to seminary libraries, church-related colleges, and on an exchange basis with many similar quarterlies. All inquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Princeton Seminary Bulletin, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

ALUMNI NEWS

Issued four times a year by the Information Office in cooperation with the Secretary of the Seminary, Alumni News is distributed without charge to all Princeton Seminary alumni. The contents include articles on campus events, the developing program of the Seminary, and the activities of alumni and members of the current Seminary community.

THEOLOGY TODAY

Published continuously since 1944, THEOLOGY TODAY has become one of the more widely circulated and influential religious quarterlies in the United States. The Trustees of the Seminary have assumed financial responsibility for the journal, although it is not an official organ of Princeton Theological Seminary. Building on the distinguished tradition of the older Princeton Review, THEOLOGY TODAY attempts to provide wide-ranging, reflective articles on contemporary trends in theology, church, and society. The Editorial Council includes men and women in fields ranging from journalism to teaching to parish ministry, and its circulation includes a large number of Protestants and Roman Catholics in the United States and more than seventy-five foreign countries. For information regarding the journal and subscriptions write THEOLOGY TODAY, Box 29, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SHARE

A Life Income Gift

Princeton Seminary offers several types of gift plans which provide income for life to the donor, along with certain tax benefits, and also further the support of the Seminary. These plans are:

- The Gift Annuity or the Deferred Gift Annuity
- The Princeton Seminary Fund (a pooled income fund)
- The Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust
- The Charitable Remainder Unitrust

A Scholarship

Gifts up to $2,500 will provide partial to full scholarship aid for one year. A gift of $2,500 or more initiates an identified endowment fund providing income for a partial scholarship. A $50,000 gift creates a fully endowed scholarship fund, the income of which sustains an annual full scholarship.

A Bequest

An outright bequest may be made to the Seminary, or the residuary interest assigned, or the Seminary may be designated a contingent beneficiary.

A form of bequest is: I bequeath to Princeton Theological Seminary, located at Princeton, New Jersey, the sum of $_____ to be used for the general purposes of the Seminary, or as follows:

The corporate name of the Seminary is

"Princeton Theological Seminary"
at Princeton, New Jersey

For Further Information

Full information about any of these opportunities will be provided on request. Please write or call The Vice-President, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. The telephone number is (609) 921-8300.
